Terra Nova Returns With Frozen Men and Complete Records of Trip

London Learns Sad Fate of Intrepid Explorer and His Brave Companions

LONDON, Feb. 10.—The death of Captain Robert F. Scott and the whole of his party, who took part in the South Polar expedition, is reported in a news agency dispatch received here today from New Zealand.

DIE IN BLIZZARD.

OAMARU, N. Z., Feb. 10.—Captain Robert F. Scott and his party were overwhelmed by a blizzard on their return journey from the South Pole. The entire party perished. They reached the South Pole on January 18, 1912.

LONDON GETS NEWS.

LONDON, Feb. 10.—News reached the World today that Captain Robert F. Scott, the Antarctic explorer, and an unknown number of his companions perished in the Antarctic while on their return journey from the South Pole. They reached their goal on January 18, 1912, about a month after Captain Roald Amundsen, the Norwegian, had planted the flag of his country there. They turned back toward the basis they formed on their outward journey, but were overwhelmed and destroyed by a blizzard.

News of the death of the explorers was brought to civilization today by the captain of the Terra Novo, the vessel which had taken Scott's expedition to the south and which had gone again to bring them back after the accomplishment of their task. A searching expedition recovered the bodies and records of the party.

Captain Scott's main traveling party was to consist of sixteen men besides himself, while groups of four men each were to return at different stages of the journey, leaving Scott and four others to complete the final dash to the pole. This would indicate that some of the members of the party who had been left at the various bases were not included among the victims of the disaster and that it was they who communicated to the world the fate of the expedition.

RETURNED FROM POLE.

It was on his return that he and his party were overwhelmed by one of the terrific blizzards so prevalent in the Antarctic region.

Only a few brief bulletins were sent today from the New Zealand port of Oamaru by the captain of the Terra Nova, who related simply the fate of the party and then proceeded with his vessel for the port of Littleton, where he will arrive Thursday.

The dispatch came as an utter surprise to London and cast a gloom over the community which has been unequaled since the death of King Edward.

It is believed here that the disaster

NIGHT PASSES TRANQUILLY IN CITY OF MEXICO

REPORTS CONCERNING MADERO UNCONFIRMED

At the top is shown the Plaza de la Constitucion at Mexico City, with the cathedral in the background, and to the left a busy street. It was in the neighborhood of this plaza that yesterday's serious fighting took place. In the middle row (left) is General Bernardo Reyes, who was slain in yesterday's fight, and (right) General Felix Diaz, who is in control of the situation. Below is President Madero, who was overthrown yesterday.

PRINCE KATSURA STONED IN STREETS

Premier and Minister of Foreign Affairs Victim of Riot.

TOKIO, Feb. 10.—Prince Taro Katsura, premier and minister of foreign affairs of Japan, was stoned by a mob today in the streets.

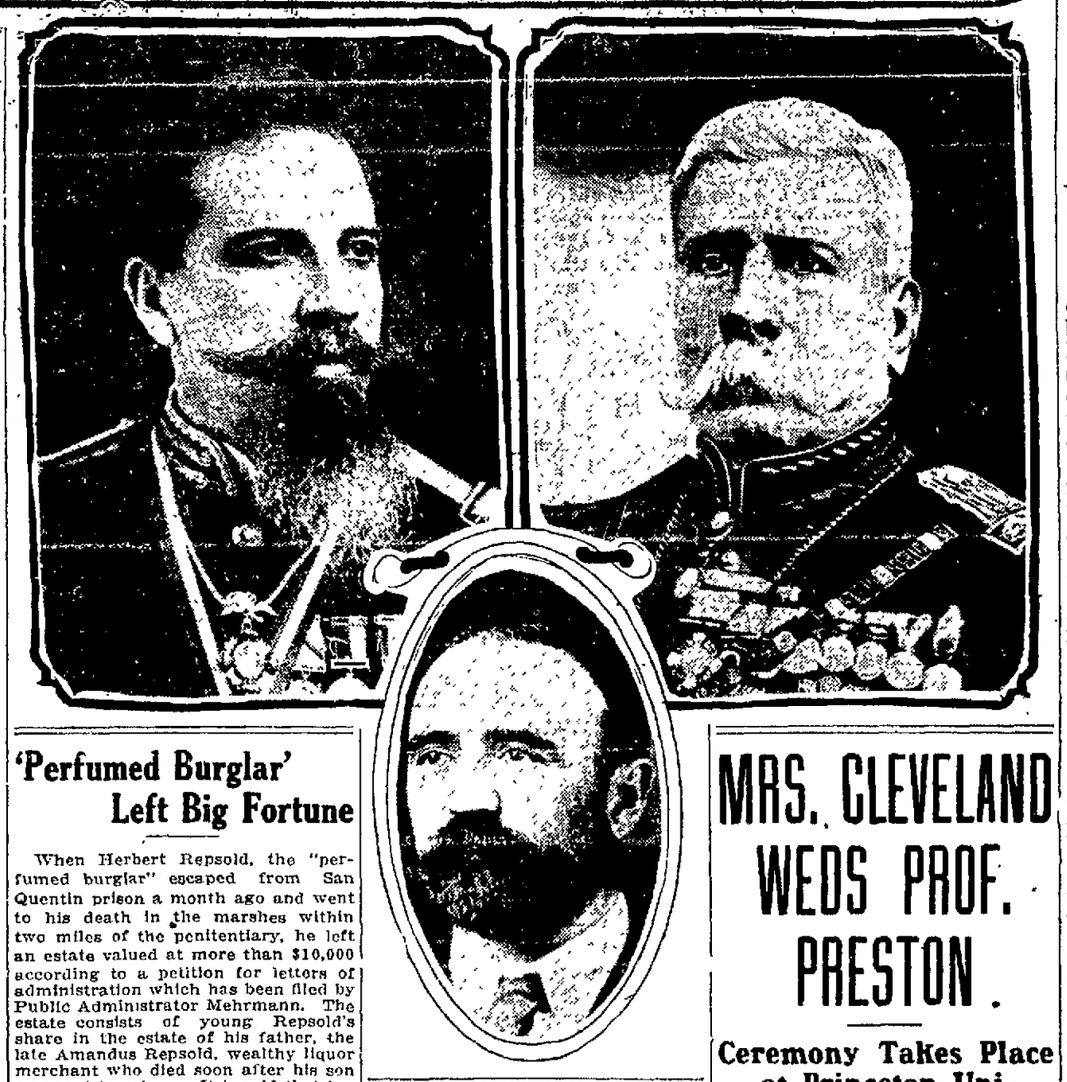

The attack came immediately after he had offered to the emperor his resignation and that of the other members of the cabinet. Several newspaper offices were also attacked by the crowds, who attempted to set fire to the buildings.

There were many riots throughout the city, in the course of which a number of policemen and civilians were injured. The excitement continues.

FORMER PREMIER SUMMONED.

Marquis Kimmochi Saionji, former premier and now leader of the constitutional party, was summoned to the palace by his majesty immediately after the receipt of Katsura's resignation.

The cabinet's action is the result of the firm attitude in the diet of the Constitutionalists and Liberals, who refused to follow the example of Saionji in withdrawal of the recent vote of lack of confidence in the government. In the cabinet's only step to meet this offer was an immediate dissolution of the diet, but the minister of marine, Admiral Baron Minoru Saito, refused to sign the recommendation for this action and the resignation of the cabinet became imperative.

'Perfumed Burglar' Left Big Fortune

When Herbert Repsold, the "perfumed burglar" escaped from San Quentin prison a month ago and went to his death in the marshes within two miles of the penitentiary, he left an estate valued at more than $10,000 according to a petition for letters of administration which has been filed by Public Administrator Mehrmann. The estate consists of young Repsold's share in the estate of his father, the late Amandus Repsold, wealthy liquor merchant who died soon after his son was sent to prison. It is said that besides the dead convict, there are no other heirs in this country. A sister resides in Germany.

Ferryboat Piedmont in Collision With Schooner

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 10.—Considerable excitement was caused among the passengers on the steamer Piedmont at 7:45 this morning when a collision occurred with the steam schooner Pasadena near the ferry slip on this side. Both vessels were proceeding slowly through the fog, the whistles blowing when the Pasadena suddenly loomed up and struck the Piedmont a glancing blow on the bow. Several women were heard to cry out with fright but by reversing the Piedmont's engines and throwing over the steering wheel, the captain of the Pasadena prevented damage or serious consequences. The Pasadena was proceeding to the channel, having come from Albion, Cal.

One of the Pasadena's boats was carried away and she was otherwise damaged. The accident was caused by a tule fog, which, extending from Monterey to the Oregon line, blanketed the shore line and disrupted all shipping schedules.

This is the second accident to the Piedmont within two weeks. On January 29, in a heavy tule fog, she rammed the ferry Newark, causing serious damage. Today's collision occurred off Yerba Buena, when the Piedmont, one of the biggest ferry boats in the world, was edging cautiously through the mist which made it impossible to see a ship's length ahead.

The Pasadena is owned by Morehouse, Preston & Le Baron.

MRS. CLEVELAND WEDS PROF. PRESTON.

Ceremony Takes Place at Princeton University.

PRINCETON, N. J., Feb. 10.—Mrs. Grover Cleveland and Professor Thomas Joseph Preston Jr. were married at 10.30 o'clock this morning by President John Grier Hibben of Princeton University in Prospect, the executive residence of the university. No preliminary announcement had been made and the utmost simplicity was observed in the ceremony. Because of the recent illness of Preston the wedding was private, the other guests, in addition to the members of the two immediate families, being President and Mrs. Hibben, Miss Elizabeth Hibben and Andrew West, dean of Princeton's graduate school. The bride wore a white silk gown and carried a bouquet of white Killarney roses. The wedding breakfast was served at Prospect immediately after the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jex Preston will spend the remainder of the winter in Florida. No announcement cards were sent out.

CONSIDER SAFETY OF AMERICANS IN MEXICO

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—The United States late today decided tso send a battleship to Vera Cruz and another to Tampico and vessels to Mazatlan and to Acapulco.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10. — Secretary of State Knox, at the end of today's special cabinet meeting, said it has been decided to hold the cruiser Denver at Acapulco, Mexico, instead of sending her to Salvador, as had been planned. Other naval movements were discussed, the secretary said.

President Taft and the cabinet met early today to take up the Mexican situation. It was a special session called originally to consider a message to Congress on the budget system, but the startling developments of yesterday diverted its original purpose.

While it was again stated today that only most dire conditions could force intervention in Mexico during the remaining three weeks of President Taft's administration, the general staff of the army has had the Mexican mobilization plans ready and the navy was in readiness for any contingency.

It now develops that the administration was not completely surprised by the uprising yesterday. Last fall, when Felix Diaz began his unsuccessful attempt at revolution in Vera Cruz, officials here fully expected that the Madero regime would end soon.

The question to concern the cabinet meeting today was the precarious situation of Americans in the City of Mexico, if Diaz or President Madero could not guarantee protection for their lives or property.

NAVY WOULD MOVE FIRST.

If the United States were to intervene the first step would be taken by the navy. It would fall to Rear Admiral Badger, commander-in-chief of the Atlantic fleet, to dispatch some of the big battleships to Vera Cruz to

MADERO REPORTED TO HAVE FLED THE CITY

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 10.—The night passed quietly in Mexico City and 7 o'clock this morning saw no resumption of the fight that yesterday resulted in the supposed flight of President Madero and the success of General Felix Diaz, the rebel leader.

Diaz has made no new move, and the general situation remains much as it was last night, when the rebellious army practically seized the city after street fighting before the national palace, that resulted in the death of General Bernardo Reyes and some 200 people.

Stories are rife that President Madero has fled the city, headed for some port on the east coast, while in other quarters it is declared that he has acceded to the peremptory demand of Diaz, voiced last night, that he at once resign the presidency.

Neither of these reports could be confirmed at an early hour today. Relatives of Madero refused this morning to divulge his whereabouts.

Only a few troops came into the city during the night and the early hours of today and these showed little disposition to fight.

UNCERTAINTY PREVAILS.

Uncertainty as to what developments would follow the revolt of the army, by which General Felix Diaz captured the Mexican capital yesterday, prevailed in Mexico City early today.

The residents of the city spent a quiet but sleepless night, expecting to see more fighting in the streets today. In yesterday's revolt more than 200 persons were killed.

The populace did not know early today whether President Madero had fled from the capital. With a following of loyal troops, said to number 1000, he took refuge in the national palace yesterday, but it was reported at daybreak that under the cover of night he had fled toward the eastern coast, taking his family with him. It was also reported that all of the members of his cabinet had resigned.

The report of his flight was given credence, although it was without confirmation. His decision to close the capital was said to be due to General Blanquet's refusal to stand by him.

REFUSES TO FIGHT DIAZ.

General Blanquet arrived last night with a small portion of his troops, supposedly loyal to Madero, but he re-

Three Men Slain in Bloody Fight With Striking Miners

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Feb. 10.—Three men were killed in a fight between striking miners and a posse under Captain Fred Lester in the mountains, near Mucklow, today. The dead men were members of Lester's force. The fight was still on early this afternoon.

Captain Lester, officer of the West Virginia guard, learned today that a force of striking miners and their sympathizers were marching toward Mucklow to attack the force of deputies under Sheriff Bonner Hill, stationed at that place.

fused to fight against General Felix Diaz.

Since the arrival of Blanquet's force the bridges between the capital and Toluca have been burned.

It is recalled that during the Orozco rebellion Madero stated that he would remain in the government palace as long as possible and then, with whoever remained loyal, he would transfer the seat of government to the hills in the south, where he would keep up the fight for constituted government.

The city apparently was not convinced today that Madero would not be able to return to the city with enough troops to wrest from Diaz and his mutinous followers the power which they secured yesterday. If Madero remained in the national palace here or took refuge in the palace at Chapultepec, it was generally assumed that the bombardment of these places would follow. There was considerable speculation as to what action Congress might take. It was regarded as probable that it would demand the resignation of the Madero administration.

SILENCE DEEP.

The silence of the night in the streets was almost gravelike, despite the fact that all of the regular police had been removed and in their places patrolmen in groups made rounds of the city at long intervals. The only night activities was the occasional passing of a Red Cross automobile ambulance either removing a victim of yesterday's revolt or taking up a position in readiness for possible engagements in the streets today.

The United States Embassy was guarded during the night by a force of 20 Americans selected by General C. H. Agramonte, formerly of the United States Army and commanded by R. M. Boulet, a steamship traffic agent. Others included in the guard were C. W. Fish and W. F. Patten, traffic manager and general passenger agent, respectively, of the National Railway.

Reports regarding the advance of the Zapatista rebels from the south continued during the night.

SON OF REYES SUICIDE.

It was reported that General Evevo de La O would arrive in the capital during the day to join Diaz. There was also the more alarming report that the troops in Monterey had revolted, headed by General Trevino. As the telegraph line is in control of the government, there is no way of confirming this report.

The killing of General Benardo Reyes, former minister of war, in yesterday's fighting had a tragic sequence in the suicide of his son Rodolfo. The younger Reyes shot himself through the head because of grief over his father's death.

owners of other regions into which the insurrectos had ridden.

CAN KILL REBEL WOUNDED.

Officially the grand total of rebels today is less than a few months ago, but aside from the statement of the Government to this effect there is no good reason to believe that the enrollment of rebels is not larger today than ever. The federal army, its ranks filled with conscripts, including prisoners and even captured rebels, continues to garrison the larger cities, and the rebels continue to control the rural districts almost at will.

Tales of rebel victories reach the capital from time to time and are as frequently denied by the Government officials. That fighting occurs some place almost every day and that the engagements are of such magnitude that the federal forces employ artillery in many of them is admitted in Government offices, but the losses almost invariably are in the proportion of about 90 per cent rebels and 10 per cent federals. Except in rare cases, the rebel wounded are reported as rebel dead. The law gives the federal the right to kill the rebel wounded.

The movements of the rebels in the north, along the American frontier, attract more attention in the United States than do the operations of those in the south. Mexican Government circles also display keener interest in the border operations, perhaps on account of the attendant danger of international complications.

The greatest activity, however, and by far the largest groups of rebels, are found in the region south of the capital. The isolation of towns of considerable importance no longer is of enough interest to arouse public apprehension to a high pitch, and not even the presence of rebels within ten and fifteen miles of Mexico City excites the residents of the capital.

STORIES OF ATROCITIES.

Stories of atrocities are common, and the bearing away young girls by Zapatistas excites about the same degree of interest as does the report that the rebels have confiscated so many head of cattle. The rebels in the north are not given to the same methods of personal revenge as are those in the south. Occasionally the northern rebels have executed federals in reprisal, but in the south wanton torture is common. Recently, in the State of Mexico, forty miles from the national capital, the Zapatistas, angry at an aged Indian who persisted in carrying mail after he had been warned not to, disciplined him by first cutting off his feet. Then they cut off his hands, and the last act was the thrusting of a pole through the man's neck and the hanging of his body in a tree, the ends of the pole resting on branches.

Arrests of prominent persons in Mexico are not uncommon these days, and the judges of the Supreme Court have felt that a little precaution on their part might save embarrassment. In due and formal manner the members of this body decided to carry with them cards of identification which were calculated to convince any zealous police officer that the judges were entitled to the same exemptions that a Congressman enjoys.

To protest against the conscription of many of their neighbors a committee of citizens of Tenango, in the State of Mexico, has called at the office of the Minister of the Interior. They explained that the federal army officers had made a mistake; that in rounding up a lot of Zapatistas for enforced service in the army they had carried off a number of peaceful citizens.

Mexico is Seething With Great Revolt

(Associated Press Correspondence.)

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 10.—Accounts of battles, uprisings, intrigues and general revolutionary disturbances covering a period of more than two years have continued with such monotonous frequency that both here and abroad mention of the Government's struggle with a discontented people is regarded as an "old story," but to a great many thousand individuals it has a more vital interest now than ever. By many it is believed that the end of the fight is not far off; the increasing horde of rebels is doggedly striking at everything that suggests Madero's administration; the non-combatant and passive element, including every one of the so-called better class, anxiously awaits each new development, and foreigners begin half their conversations with "What do you think Wilson will do?"

The close of January showed little, if any, improvement for the Government. On numerous occasions the Government announced that this or that rebel leader had been killed in action, but in a majority of cases the slaughtered one has proved the Government's information erroneous by reappearing at the head of his men in territory some distance from where he was supposed to have been killed.

Two of Pasqual Orozco's officers of importance—Francisco del Torro and Luis Fernandez—did surrender, one of them bringing with him more than a hundred men, but the other surrendered chiefs have been men of almost negligible importance. From a few regions the rebels have departed or have been driven out, but what was an advantage to the peaceful residents of those regions was almost invariably a disadvantage to property

Diaz, Condemned to Death, Finally Spared

EL PASO, Feb. 10.—Felix Diaz, nephew of Porfirio Diaz, although not yet 40 years old, was a brigadier-general in the Mexican army prior to the abdication of his uncle, the president, but when this event took place he retired to private life. He refused to enter a political life, although twice asked to assume the office of governor of Oaxaca, one of the most important of the Mexican union.

Several months ago Felix Diaz became the leading figure in a report, that at the time received general credence, to the effect that an army had been formed in Northern Mexico for the purpose of striking at the organized government, and that this army was to be commanded by Diaz.

The then peaceful citizen of the republic, however, was a trifle more foxy than he was given credit for. He eluded the men who were shadowing him, and a couple of days later the Vera Cruz train failed to arrive in Mexico City, and it was found that telegraph wires were cut. But just before telegraphic connection was severed, a terse message came through, to the effect that Felix Diaz, with but 200 men at his back, had captured Vera Cruz, and that his force had been augmented by the federal garrison of the place and the crews of four gunboats lying in the harbor.

BATTLE PROVES REAL.

Various federal forces from time to time approached the city, but made no attacks, and General Joaquin Beltran, in command of the federal forces, held several conferences with Diaz. The general feeling seemed to be that the federal force would allow itself to be captured.

It was said that Diaz' instructions to his troops were to fire over the heads of the federals, that the world might think that the regular troops had put up a fine battle prior to capture. But it didn't work out that way.

The night preceding the attack, another and larger federal force, under command of General Blanquet, whose loyalty to Madero was not questioned, had arrived at Beltran's rear, and, through the activity of General Blanquet, the "fake" assault became a real one.

There was a harmless fire next morning. Under it fifty federals charged the city gates, entered them and went to the main plaza, where Diaz was awaiting them. Colonel Ocaranza was in command of this force. The force reached Diaz's side. Diaz thought that Ocaranza was to offer him his allegiance, but instead of that, he was declared to be a prisoner of war. This ended what probably was the most short-lived revolution in Mexico. Diaz was taken prisoner and condemned to death, but the activity of friends saved his life.

Reyes Had Brilliant Record as Statesman

EL PASO, Feb. 10.—The killing of General Bernardo Reyes, always a progressive, removes one of the most bitter and uncompromising opponents in Mexico to the Madero government. For over a year he had been in prison charged with treason in fomenting an uprising against Madero.

Reyes was a soldier and statesman, with a long record of achievements. He was born in Guadalajara about sixty-two years ago.

A few months prior to the outbreak of the Madero revolution there were rumors of an uprising against President Diaz in favor of General Reyes, who was extremely popular throughout the country. Diaz sent Reyes to Europe, ostensibly to study military organization, but recalled him before the revolution of Madero had reached a crisis. When Reyes reached Mexico, however, Diaz had been forced to resign.

Reyes then aligned himself with Madero and agreed to accept the portfolio of minister of war when Madero's cabinet was formed. Later, however, he decided himself to run for the presidency, but was overwhelmingly defeated at the polls by Madero.

Partisans of Reyes attempted to nullify the election of Madero, but failed, and Reyes went to Texas. There he started a revolution, and was proclaimed provisional president of Mexico. This was in December, 1911. After operating for a short time against the government forces Reyes surrendered to General Trevino at Linarez. He asked no guarantee for himself, but pleaded for mercy for his followers.

While preparing for his revolution against Madero, Reyes was arrested at San Antonio, Tex., charged with conspiring against a friendly government. He was released on heavy bail for his appearance for trial, and this bail was declared forfeited at Laredo last November, while Reyes was in prison in Mexico.

Demand Surrender of City of Monterey

MONCLOVA, Mex., Feb. 10.—A band of rebels reported marching on Monterey will, it is declared, demand the surrender of the city late today. It is expected here that little or no resistance will be offered.

D. F. Lenihan, one of the highest applicants on the eligible list, was appointed substitute patrolman by Commissioner F. C. Turner in the police department.

MEMORIAL SERVICES FOR WILLIAM E. DARGIE HELD

Tribute Is Paid at Cemetery on Anniversary of Publisher's Death

Memorial services in honor of William E. Dargie, late publisher of THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE, were held at his grave this morning at Mountain View cemetery. Several score of friends and business associates were present at the simple ceremony.

Rev. Alexander Allen, rector of St. Paul's Church of this city, officiated at the services. He used as his subject portions of St. Paul's teachings.

Following this, Rev. Allen told of the tribute to the dead from its origin in the beginning of the Roman empire till the present day. He declared that the people of that day and time saw a real significance in their relatives being taken away from them by death.

"They did not believe that they were going away forever," he said. "They thought a real God, spirit great and good, had removed the soul to a bigger and better world, a world that was only separated from themselves by death. It was not a real taking away, it was only a temporary removal into another sphere. It is the same today. We do not think that the soul has gone forever. We believe that the soul has been transferred to a different sphere. It is then strictly in harmony that we gather here for memorial services. Only God knows the character of man. Only He can judge. We pass our judgment carelessly. But what do we know?

"In our church there is no difference in classes. There are the same services for a bishop of the highest degree as for the poor boy in his teens. It is a spirit of democracy. God is good. God will not reject a soul unless it spurns his helping and guiding hand."

Another prayer was offered and the simple services were over.

Two years ago today William E. Dargie succumbed to the ravages of sickness. On Friday, February 10, 1911, the newspaper world was cast in gloom with Dargie's sudden demise. Monday, February 13, 1911, the remains of the beloved publisher were interred in Mountain View cemetery.

FEDERAL TROOPS DESERT MADERO

Army Rises in Revolt and Frees Leaders of Rebel Forces.

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 10. — The army arose in revolt in Mexico City yesterday, took possession of the public buildings, shot down Federal adherents in the streets, released General Felix Diaz, leader of the Vera Cruz revolt, and General Bernardo Reyes from prison, and falling into line under their leadership, practically captured the Mexican capital.

Nearly 200 persons were killed in the street fighting, most of them civilians, and many of them women and children. General Bernardo Reyes, it is reported, was killed early in the fighting, being shot through the head.

General Diaz is practically in control of the city and the situation. He has practically the entire Federal army behind him, the artillery, the arsenals and the powder magazines.

Madero has only the mounted police, the Chapultepec students and a small detachment of volunteers. These troops are inside the National palace, and they have a few machine guns.

COURAGE SHOWN BY MADERO.

President Madero proved himself a man of rare courage during the entire day. He was five miles outside the city when the revolt began, but in spite of the urgent pleas of his friends he placed himself at the head of a handful of mounted police and fought his way through the streets to the palace.

The day was marked by four separate engagements, the most sanguinary of which took place in front of the National palace. But the most important was that which terminated in the formal surrender of the arsenal and of the troops in the artillery barracks, late in the afternoon.

The revolt of the army began during Saturday night, when the cadets of the military school at Tlalpan, a suburb of the capital, marched to the prison, ten miles from the city, where Felix Diaz had been kept in confinement since January 26. The prison authorities released Diaz without resistance.

PRISONERS ARE RELEASED.

The cadets, led by Diaz, then proceeded to the Santiago military prison, near the city, and released General Bernardo Reyes, the idol of the army, who had been incarcerated since last December.

To the army mutineers quickly came portions of the First cavalry, Twenty-fourth cavalry and Twentieth infantry. General Manuel Mondragon, retired, was in command, but he immediately turned over his authority to Generals Diaz and Reyes.

The mutiny of the army was practically complete at daylight, and at 8:30 o'clock in the morning Generals Diaz and Reyes at the head of the army marched to the Zocala, the great plaza in front of the National palace.

GO TO CHAPULTEPEC.

President Madero and his ministers left the national palace about 10 o'clock last night. It is believed they have gone to Chapultepec. General Huerta has been left in charge of the loyal force in the palace.

In replying to the representations of the foreign diplomats, General Diaz said late last night that he could offer no protection to foreigners. He would have between 2000 and 3000 men, he said, including half the mounted police and a large force of artillery, but he could not detach any of the service asked, much as he regretted it.

The American embassy is guarded by 20 American members of the protective association which was formed several months ago.

From his headquarters in the arsenal Diaz sent a message tonight to Madero demanding his resignation and surrender. The president declined to accede to this demand.

land a force of marines and bluejackets.

Meanwhile the "expeditionary brigade" of the army, which has been held under leash for many months, will be held under orders to entrain and embark.

This force, numbering in the aggregate about 15,000 men, would be dispatched from Newport News and New Orleans, converging on Vera Cruz, while, of course, there would be a concentration of troops on the northern border of Mexico.

But officials are hopeful that no such order will be necessary.

One American is known to have been injured in yesterday's clash, American Ambassador Henry Lane Wilson, at the first sign of trouble, took prompt action to safeguard the lives of Americans and other foreigners. As dean of the diplomatic corps he called all the foreign representatives into a conference and demanded from the Madero government specific assurance that adequate protection be extended to all foreigners in the capital. Subsequently Ambassador Wilson made the same demand on Felix Diaz. At Wilson's direction Montgomery Schuyler, secretary of the embassy, made a tour of the city by automobile.

Immediately after the conflict between the Diaz and Madero forces he reported bodies of the dead and dying uncared for in the plaza.

Ambassador Wilson's telegrams confirm earlier dispatches of the control of the Mexican capital by the Diaz forces and the rapid sequence of events which followed the release of General Diaz and General Reyes from the federal prisons.

CRUISERS SAIL.

SAN DIEGO, Feb. 10.—Fully prepared for sailing on short notice for the west coast of Mexico to assist United States warships now on duty there in protecting Americans and American interests, the armored cruisers Annapolis and South Dakota steamed out of the harbor and anchored in the ocean off Coronado this morning. Unless orders are received soon the cruisers will engage with the torpedo flotilla and the submarines in night "attacks" and searchlight drills for the next four or five days.

Shore leave for the men is greatly curtailed, only a small number being allowed ashore at a time and the length of their stay is a few hours only. They were instructed not to leave San Diego and to be ready to return to the cruisers upon being notified by the shore patrols. Both cruisers have coaled and have a maximum of stores on board.

TO PROTECT AMERICANS.

When the House met today Representative Hammill of New Jersey introduced a joint resolution calling for protection of American interests in Mexico. The resolution follows:

"Resolved, That to safeguard American lives and property now jeopardized by political developments in Mexico, the Secretary of State be and hereby is directed to instruct the American ambassador at Mexico City to notify the existing government of Mexico that it will be held strictly and immediately answerable to this government for any acts committed within its domain injurious to the persons and property of citizens of the United States of America."

The Mexican embassy here announced that it had received but one dispatch on the situation. That was from Pedro Lascarain, minister of foreign affairs. It was sent from Mexico City late last night and read:

"Military uprising. Government has situation under control."

WILL NOT INCREASE FORCE.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10. — Assurances from Consul Edwards at Juarez that conditions are quiet in that section of the border country in which federal forces are still loyal to Madero, are taken to indicate that there will be no immediate increase of the American patrol force along the Texas Mexican frontier.

The Mexican situation was the subject of animated discussion among Senators today, particularly those from border states. A resolution calling for the safeguarding of American interests in Mexico was introduced in the Senate by Senator Martin of New Jersey. It was identical with that introduced in the House by Representative Hammill.

MRS. CLEVELAND WEDS PROFESSOR

Wife of Late President Becomes Mrs. Thomas J. Preston Jr.

America who has held the interest and admiration of her countrywomen as has Mrs. Frances Folsom-Cleveland-Preston.

As a girl scarcely out of her teens Frances Folsom, a Buffalo society girl and graduate of Wells College, went to Washington to enter the White House as the bride of President Cleveland, the former law partner of her father, Oscar Folsom. By her unsurpassed graciousness, her simple democracy and her genuine kindness, she won the heart of Washington at once.

After the death of her famous husband in 1908 she remained quietly at her home at Princeton and devoted herself to the rearing of her four children. The Clevelands had five children, but one of them, Ruth, died several years ago. The others are Marion, Francis, Richard and Esther. The latter was known as the "White House Baby," being the only one of the five born in the executive mansion.

The widow of the former President met Professor Preston about a year and a half ago while on a visit to Wells College, where the bridegroom is the professor of archaeology and the arts. Invitations to Princeton followed and their congeniality in mental tastes quickly ripened into something deeper.

GROOM PRINCETON MAN.

Thomas J. Preston is 50 years of age, while his bride is a year younger. The former is a graduate of Princeton, where he made a brilliant record as a student.

After his graduation he launched into a business career, entering a manufacturing firm of Newark, N. J. By his special aptitude in business he shortly succeeded in amassing a comfortable fortune. Then he turned again to the paths of scholasticism, which had always been nearest his heart.

He disposed of his business interests and went to France, where he studied for two years at the Sorbonne.

Then he returned to America and studied for two years at Princeton. On completing his post-graduate work he received at the same time the degrees of Litt. B., and M. A., and was elected to the Princeton chapter of the Phi Beta Kappa society.

WINS FELLOWSHIP.

He was afterward appointed fellow of the American School of Classical Study at Rome, and in an open competition won the fellowship of the Archaeological Institute of America.

Later on Princeton conferred on him the degree of Doctor of Philosophy, after which he was called to his present professorship at Wells College.

During her engagement days last January Mrs. Preston visited Washington with her fiance. The latter was received with great cordiality and made a most favorable impression wherever he went. But to the former hostess of the White House it was a veritable ovation. It was the first time she had visited Washington since the close of President Cleveland's second term and the whole city turned out to do her honor.

While on a visit to Princeton last winter President Taft called attention to the fact that the former Mrs. Cleveland was the only one of the Presidents' wives whose picture was not hung in the White House. This was received with consternation by the Princeton students, who idolize her, and they saw to it that the omission was quickly remedied.

The twelve tons of free text books came direct from the State Printing Office at Sacramento, a bulky testimonial to the new efficiency of that institution. Today they were unloaded from the river boat and piled on the quay at the foot of Pacific street.

Clears Skin of Worst Eruptions

Remarkable Action of a Remedy That Drives Every Speck of Poison From Body.

There is a strange, mysterious power in a remarkable blood medicine that finds its way through the circulation by what is known as Divine selection. The remedy is Swift's Sure Specific, or S. S. S.

Science cannot explain just why certain elements in the blood feed the bones, others nourish the hair roots, and so on. And it is this same mysterious action of S S S. that attacks all diseased spots, drives away all germs, heals all sores and supplants the activity of disease germs with the powerful healing action of leucocytes Remarkable testimonials have been written that prove beyond question there is no blood disease but what can be cured by S. S. S. And in all those cases that were treated with mercury, iodides, arsenic, copper and other minerals with no permanent effect, the most astonishing recoveries have been made by S. S. S.

There is not a blood taint of any nature that can remain in a system fortified by this most wonderful remedy, for it is absolutely pure and contains only those elements that the blood naturally assimilates, and which the tissues gratefully accept. It agrees with the most delicate stomach, even in those cases where the use of strong drugs has so weakened the digestive system that medicine cannot be given. Get a $1.00 bottle of S. S. S. at any drug store and thus be assured of a complete cure of any eruptive blood disease. If your case is peculiar and you desire special advice write to The Swift Specific Co., Medical Dept., 127 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

ANTARCTIC BLIZZARD KILLS CAPTAIN ROBERT SCOTT'S PARTY OF EXPLORERS

CAPTAIN ROBERT SCOTT, WHO PERISHED IN AN ANTARCTIC BLIZZARD AFTER DISCOVERING THE SOUTH POLE

WIFE AT SEA HAS HEARD NOTHING OF DISASTER

did not involve all of the Scott party of sixty-six but probably only Scott himself and the four others selected by him for the final dash to the pole These are supposed to be Dr E A Wilson, chief of the scientific staff, Captain L E G Oates of the Inniskilling Dragoons, Lieutenant H Bowers of the Royal Indian Marine, the commissariat officer, and Petty Officer E E Evans of the royal navy

REACHED SOUTH POLE.

The date of Captain Scott's attainment of the South Pole, January 18, 1912, shows that he reached the goal of his expedition almost exactly one month after Captain Roald Amundsen, the Norwegian explorer Captain Amundsen's report to King Haakon of Norway read

'Pole attained 14th-17th December, 1911 All well"

The report of Captain Scott was destined not to be received by the waiting world until after his death

No details had come to hand this morning as to how the records of Captain Scott were found, but that he arrived at the pole in date mentioned was definitely known

MEMBERS IN PARTY.

The principal members of the expedition besides Captain Scott were Lieutenant G R Evans, R. N, second in command, Dr. E. A. Wilson, chief of the scientific staff, zoologist and artist, Lieutenant V. L. A Campbell, R N, leader of the eastern party, Lieutenant H L L Pennell, R N, magnetic and meteorological work, Lieutenant H. E Dep Rennick, R N, of the western party, Lieutenant H R. Bowers, Royal Indian marine engineer, Lieutenant E W. Riley, R. N, surgeon, G M Levick, R. N, physician and zoologist, E L Atkinson, R. N, surgeon, bacteriologist, parasitologist, F. R H Drake, R N., secretary, C H. Mears, in charge of ponies and dogs for the western party, Captain L F G. Oates, Dragoons, in charge of ponies and dogs, Dr. G C. Simpson, physicist of the western party; T. Griffith Taylor, geologist, W W Nelson, biologist of the western party, D. G. Lillie, biologist, A. Cherry Gerard, zoologist of the western party, H. G. Ponting, photographer of the western party, B. C Day, motor engineer of the western party, W G Thompson, geologist of the western party, C S. Wright, chemist of the western party. Boatswain T Feather, in charge of sledging outfit, Boatswain A Chetam of the Terra Nova, W L Williams, engineer of the Terra Nova, W. Lashley, assistant engineer western party; Chiew Steward W. Archer of the Terra Nova.

SAILED JUNE, 1910.

The Terra Nova sailed on June 10, 1910, for New Zealand and the south pole It was joined by Captain Robert F. Scott a few days later at Cardiff

The expedition consisted of twenty-eight officers and scientists in addition to a crew of twenty-three picked men from the British royal navy

Reports were current at the time the Terra Nova sailed for the Antarctic on December 14, 1912, to bring back the Scott party that some of the members of the relief expedition had expressed grave doubts as to whether Captain Scott and his fellow explorers would ever return No reason was given for these doubts, but they were freely circulated

Mrs. Scott left London five weeks ago for New Zealand to meet her husband there.

LAST WORD HEARD.

The last direct word received from Captain Scott himself was brought by the commander of the Terra Nova from the southern ice regions when she returned to Akaroa, N. Z., on March 31 last year. The brief message was in Captain Scott's own handwriting and said·

"I am remaining in the Antarctic for another winter to continue and complete my work."

SENT BACK REPORT.

Captain Scott had shortly before sent back a report to his base at McMurdo Sound, saying that on January 3, 1912, he had reached a point 150 miles from the pole and was advancing toward his destination The dispatch from Oamaru, N. Z., this morning shows that in fifteen days he covered the remaining 150 miles, having traveled at the rate of ten miles a day.

FINELY EQUIPPED.

The expedition under Captain Scott was the best equipped that had ever been gathered together for such an adventure It sailed from Port Chalmers, near Christ Church, New Zealand, on November 29, 1910. The Terra Nova made direct south into the Ross sea. Early in January, 1911, she forced her way into McMurdo sound, where winter quarters were established on Cape Evans.

The members of the expedition had a very arduous task in putting their stores on shore and the work took a week However, they were able to make themselves very comfortable there in houses, which they had carried with them in "knockdown" form. They at once began their scientific observations.

PREPARED FOR THREE YEARS.

Provisions for a three years' stay in the ice regions had been taken on the Terra Nova and these had been placed on shore. Captain Scott had with him twenty Siberian ponies, thirty dogs and two motor sleds

The ponies, dogs and motor sleds were to be used alternately for transport across the 1500 miles between the landing place and the pole.

It was arranged to cover ten miles daily and it is apparent that this scheme was carried out up to the moment they reached the pole.

SIGNALLED NEWS.

OAMARA Feb 10—The news of the appalling disaster which befell Captain Scott and his companions was brought to this port by a signalled message from the Terra Nova, the vessel which had carried the explorer and his expedition to the Antarctic, and which late last year went once again to the South to bring him and his companions back

The total number of deaths involved in the calamity is not exactly known, but it is believed 66 scientists and sailors lost their lives Captain Scott's party reached the exact point where Roald Amundsen planted the Norwegian flag at the South Pole They found there the hut constructed and left behind by Amundsen's party

These facts were recorded on documents found on the bodies of the explorers when they were recovered.

TERRA NOVA SIGHTED.

CHRIST CHURCH, N. Z, Feb 10—The Antarctic steamer Terra Nova, which was supposed to have on board Captain Robert F. Scott and the members of his South Polar Expedition did not stop at Oamara, as was reported yesterday, but merely signalled as she passed

The Terra Nova is proceeding to the port of Littleton, where she was expected to arrive Thursday

WIFE TO MEET SCOTT.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 10.—Mrs. Robert F. Scott sailed from here for Sydney, Australia, to join her husband on the liner Aorangi, which left February 5 The Aorangi is due at Tahiti on February 17, and at Sydney March 3, touching also at Raratonga and Wellington

Mrs Scott, now tragically the widow of the British Antarctic explorer, though she is yet probably unaware of his fate, expected to meet her husband in New Zealand Just before her departure, she said she had not heard from him in 18 months.

Mrs Scott sailed on the Aorangi, whose first port of call is Papeete, Tahiti. As there is no cable to that point, and as the ship will not touch at any cable point until she reaches the Antipodes, it is said possible that Mrs Scott will not learn of her husband's death until she reaches New Zealand, although efforts are being made to reach the Aorangi by wireless

American Explorers Shocked by Tragedy

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—Rear Admiral Robert E Peary, U. S. N., retired, who received a gold medal and the thanks of Congress as the first man to attain the north pole, said, when he received the news today of the death of Captain Scott and his companions.

"The news comes to me as a terrible shock. Mrs Scott and the wives and relatives of the brave men who perished with Captain Scott and the whole British nation have my deepest, sincerest and most heartfelt sympanthy and condolence."

Admiral Peary at present is recovering from a surgical operation

Rear Admiral Chester, retired, a conspicuous figure in polar expedition, officials of the National Geographic Society and the entire colony of scientists here, who have been watching the race to the south pole, were shocked by the news of the catastrophe

AMUNDSEN PAYS TRIBUTE.

Captain Raold Amundsen, who led in the race to the pole against Captain Scott and other competitors, paid a glowing tribute to Scott in the course of the address he recently made here before the National Geographical Society on receiving the society's gold medal commemorating his achievement.

It was Amundsen's belief that Scott had achieved the south pole and then had been delayed on his return for the purpose of gathering scientific data.

Shackleton Says Its Inconceivable

NEW YORK, Feb 10—"I cannot believe it is true. It is inconceivable that an expedition as well equipped perished before a blizzard" Lieutenant Sir Ernest Shackleton, the British explorer and one-time associate of Captain Scott, so expressed himself today when shown the dispatches from New Zealand telling of the fate of Captain Scott and party.

"What I have always feared most was scurvy," he added "In fact, the greatest danger of all expeditions is scurvy—a danger far greater than any blizzard One of Captain Scott's men died some time ago of scurvy and it is possible that the others were weakened by the disease and so they fell victims to the storm This is the only way I can explain it

"Captain Scott," he continued, "was a most efficient and careful explorer I served under him as a third lieutenant in a polar expedition three years ago.

"I would rather wait fuller reports before making any extended comment," he concluded

TWO BATTLESHIPS KNOWLAND DEMAND

Congressman Wants Fleet Retained on Western Coast.

WASHINGTON Feb 10 Appropriation should be made annually by congress for at least two battleships declared Representative Joseph R Knowland of California a member of the board of directors of the National Defense League, in a statement given out Yesterday

The Californian also urged that an American fleet should remain on the Pacific coast at all times to protect Los Angeles, San Francisco and other coast cities from possible attack

When the Pacific coast delegation has requested that a fleet of battleships be retained in Pacific waters we have been informed that the present strength of our navy would not permit this and that to divide our navy would be unwise, said Knowland

"With the weight of our naval force on the Pacific we are insured of peace Is it not wise to maintain a strong fleet in a locality that experts declare to be most vulnerable' The Pacific coast is our door to the awakened republic of China, the Philippines, Japan, Australia, the south seas, the west coast of South and Central America, Alaska and Mexico Today in Mexico the situation is critical We of the Pacific demand that there be permanently assigned to the far western seaboard a fleet of battleships commensurate with our growing importance

"Being in favor of an adequate navy, I shall vote for two battleships Conservative naval experts contend that the addition of two battleships a year is necessary to maintain our proper naval strength It is also generally agreed that there should be two effective units of the navy—one for each ocean"

ACCUSED CLERGYMAN CLEARED OF CHARGES

SAN JOSE, Feb 10—In a statement given out last night by the board of deacons of the First Baptist Church, Rev Claude Kelly, D D, is completely vindicated of anonymous charges which have been under investigation by the board during the past three weeks The statement explains that numerous letters and telegrams between here and Pittsburg, where Kelly was formerly pastor of a Baptist church, have proved that the charges had no foundation in fact

Local agencies hostile to Kelly because of his strong stand last November in causing the expulsion from the Baptist fellowship of the church at Los Gatos, which, under the leadership of Rev Robert Whitaker, abandoned the Baptist immersion clause, and because of his activity in fighting vice in San Jose, are credited with being responsible for the charges, the chief of which was that Kelly neglected to pay his debts on leaving Pittsburg

SUTRO FLIES IN HYDROPLANE TEST

Soars Over Bay Near Exposition Site; Big Crowds Watch.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb 10—The flights of Adolph G Sutro yesterday afternoon in his new double tractor hydro-aeroplane over the bay in the vicinity of the exposition grounds in his tests to qualify for an international aviator's pilot license was witnessed by large Sunday crowds along the Harbor View waterfront The tests were conducted under the auspices of the Pacific Aero Club

Conditions for the test were the best, and Sutro took advantage of his opportunity to give a pretty exhibition of his skill and the grace and power of his expensive new air-water craft. He performed two sets of tests, each consisting of five times around a double eight course 1680 feet from pylon to pylon J. C Irvine was the observer of the tests, and was assisted by Theodore Truemann, Carl Fjolander and A. W. Barrows, all members of the Pacific Aero Club

The tests were unmarred by any accidents of consequence In the first series in making the landing the machine struck a piling a glancing blow, but was soon repaired The second test concluded with a landing in the bay with a dead motor Owing to the strong currents running at the time Sutro was unable to start his engine again. The test being completed, however, he called upon Captain J. S Clark, in command of the Fort Point life-saving station's boat, which was standing near by, and the launch towed the hydroplane into its dock.

During the first series of flights Sutro was in the air for fourteen and a half minutes, and in the second series for twelve and a half minutes. Sutro was satisfied both the success of his tests and the exhibition of his machine. The judges also expressed themselves as being satisfied with the tests

GLOVER PLANS FIGHT ON MRS. EDDY'S WILL

LEAD, S D., Feb 10.—That he has not nor will not withdraw his suit to contest the will of his late mother, Mrs Mary Baker Glover Eddy, the Christian Scientist leader, was the statement of George W Glover of this city yesterday

Glover declared most emphatically that he had never authorized his attorneys to abandon the contest, that he was investigating the reports from Boston to that effect, and that, if true, other steps would be taken at once to press the suit.

OAKLAND TO GREET WARFIELD TONIGHT

Famous Actor Will be Seen at Macdonough in David Belasco's Play.

Theater goers will have the unusual privilege tonight at the Macdonough Theater to extend their welcome to America's most popular dramatic artist, David Warfield, who will be seen in his characterization of Peter Grimm," which is now looked upon as the most unique and artistic dramatic personation of the stage today. This city is fortunate in being able to witness Warfield's great contribution to the drama and theater goers are alive with expectancy for the sensational success which the great actor met with during his long engagement in New York last year at the Belasco Theater is well known

Warfield arrived in the city this morning with his company. Warfield off the stage is the same modest man he is on. He carries no secretary, valet or attendants as is generally the boast of lesser important dramatic luminaries, but each of his company loves and reveres him and everyone watches his welfare.

ARMY OF STAGE HANDS.

Although only an ordinary company in size is seen on the stage Warfield carries forty people with him. There is a whole army engaged back of the scenes placing the hundreds of elaborate little articles together that give to Peter Grimm's household its picturesque and old fashioned air Ten men are utilized to work the light effects alone. And beside there is that remarkable and weird rain and thunder storm effect which uses the services of many individuals

Warfield is making one of the longest tours of his career. It will embrace a tour of this country from coast to coast and will be his last visit to western cities for a long time. His home is in San Francisco

This will probably be the last time the public will either see Warfield or Belasco's great play, "The Return of Peter Grimm" for some time Belasco is arranging elaborate plans for Warfield next year which may include a trip through the metropolises of Europe, the first tour of the kind ever made by an American actor, by the way, playing his entire repertoire, "The Auctioneer," "The Music Master," "The Grand Army Man" and "The Return of Peter Grimm."

Dr. Arnold Lorand

Physician to the Baths, Carlsbad, Austria,

In his recently published book, "Health Through Rational Diet," from the press of the F. A. Davis Co., Philadelphia, says:

As a breakfast food another variety of the healthful cereals which are much used in America would be advantageous. Grape-Nuts, in which the floury substance has been dextrinized by long baking and thus rendered digestible and easy of assimilation, is eaten with cream and would be a useful addition to our usual breakfast.

The recommendation of this eminent European authority to the wealthiest health seekers in the world (those who frequent the famous baths of Carlsbad) is especially interesting to Americans.

Grape-Nuts FOOD

is sold at grocers almost everywhere in America for 15c the pkg.

While Grape-Nuts may be a "health luxury" in Europe, this sturdy health-giving food is within the reach of practically every American at trifling cost.

In thousands of families Grape-Nuts and cream is the regular breakfast dish of wide-awake, go-ahead people.

Rich in the brain-making, body-building elements of prime wheat and malted barley, this food has won for itself at home and abroad the title of "The King of Breakfast Foods."

"There's a Reason"

RAILROAD DIVORCE WILL BENEFIT THIS STATE

Government Approves Plan for Dissolution of Merger as Outlined by Companies.

U. P. Will Sell S. P. Stock at Market Price and by Central Pacific.

WASHINGTON, Feb 10.—Attorney-General Wickersham announced last night that he had reached an agreement with representatives of the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific Railroads for the dissolution of the great Harriman merger as decreed by the Supreme Court.

The Union Pacific agrees to sell its 1,266,500 shares of Southern Pacific stock to its own stockholders and those of the Southern Pacific in what the government regards as safe proportion. The Union Pacific will acquire the Central Pacific from the Southern Pacific, giving it an extension from Ogden to the Pacific Coast.

The plan announced is essentially the same as that made public a few days ago by the two roads, when they reached an agreement satisfactory to themselves for dissolving the merger The Attorney-General, in a public statement, goes into greater detail, however, and declares that competition will supplant monopoly under the agreed scheme of separation He gives it his unqualified approval.

COMPETITION IS ASSURED.

The various contracts necessary for the carrying out of the agreement authorized by the boards of directors of the railroad companies have been completed, and the effectiveness of the plan is conditioned upon its approval by the United States District Court, to which it will be presented at an early day.

In his statement the Attorney-General says:

"The result of the whole transaction will be to create ideal competitive conditions between the Union Pacific and the Southern Pacific for transcontinental business between Eastern points and Portland and San Francisco, and to relieve the States of California and Oregon of the monopoly of railroad control, which has been the occasion of such widespread public dissatisfaction in the past"

AGREEMENT WITH U. S.

The agreement, as stated by the Attorney-General, is this:

"The plan in brief provides for the disposition of 1,266,500 shares of stock of the Southern Pacific Company, which the Supreme Court requires the Union Pacific to dispose of and among the stockholders of the Union Pacific and the Southern Pacific companies, the holder of every four shares of stock of the Union Pacific Company to have the right to subscribe for one of such Southern Pacific shares, and the holder of every three shares of Southern Pacific stock to have the right to subscribe for one share of such shares."

The larger proportion given to the Southern Pacific stockholder was insisted upon by the Attorney-General for the purpose of insuring a wider distribution among the Southern Pacific shareholders, and to guard against the securing of any undue control of the Southern Pacific Company by the stockholders of the Union Pacific. The result of the distribution if all the shareholders should avail of their subscription rights, will be that the present stockholders of the Southern Pacific Company will own 71 per cent of its capital stock, while the stockholders of the Union Pacific will hold on 29 per cent. The stock is so offered for subscription at a price practically equal to par, payable in four installments, extending over a period of nine months.

TO PAY FOR CAPITAL STOCK.

CAPITALIST'S WIFE UNDERGOES OPERATION

NEW YORK, Feb. 10.—The American says: Mrs. Clarence H Mackay underwent an operation in the Plaza Hotel on Saturday. Dr. Walton Martin, who operated, said it was only of a minor nature and that his patient would be able to leave her apartments within a week or ten days at the most. Three or four days ago a special suite on one of the upper floors of the hotel was engaged for Mrs. Mackay and the operation was performed there. She only recently returned from Paris with her daughter Ellin, the latter having just recovered from an illness.

Inquiry at the hotel elicited the information that Mrs. Mackay was progressing favorably and that it was expected she would be convalescent within a few days.

MARINE FACES ACCUSERS
JURY PROBING "MURDER"

RICHARD G. RUDGE, ACCUSED MARINE, WHO TESTIFIED BEFORE THE GRAND JURY THIS MORNING.

Richard G. Rudge, Feature in Old Sensation, Put on Stand

With Richard C. Rudge, a marine, aboard the cruiser California present, the grand jury, which is investigating the alleged mysterious circumstances surrounding the purported murder of Helen Johnson near Pleasanton, several years ago, took up its inquiry this morning where it left off last Friday. Rudge arrived from Mare Island accompanied by Sheriff Barnet, who met him at the train He was not the first witness called, but appeared before the inquisitorial body shortly before noon for the purpose of identification. Mrs. Mary Andrews preceded Rudge into the grand jury room at the county jail, as did Lee Graves, Joel Mendoza and A. C. Garcia, all of Sunol.

Mrs. Mary Amador, who first circulated the stories about the alleged murder of the Johnson girl, and who insinuated that the guilty parties also knew something about the murder of an old man named Winslow at Sunol a year previous, when a draft for $1000 was taken from his person, was present this morning, but at noon had not been called to testify.

CONTRAST TO DESCRIPTION.

Rudge, a well-appearing man of 35, with clean-cut features, unblemished skin, perfect eyes and speaking fluent English, is a striking contrast to the description given by persons of the man known as Klein, an Austrian, who worked on the Winslow ranch and who is suspected of having murdered his employer. Klein is described as having a noticeable scar on one side of his neck, unmatched eyes, one with a cast in it, and a man speaking English imperfectly.

The grand jury adjourned until 2 o'clock this afternoon, when Chris Runckel of Niles, Mrs Charles Gray, Mrs. Amador and others were examined.

District Attorney Hynes stated that he did not believe the grand jury would finish its investigation today, but would probably take adjournment until next Friday, at which time the case will be concluded, unless unforseen circumstances arise.

Since the meeting of the body last Friday new witnesses have been subpenaed at the instigation of attorneys interested in the case, and J. B Markeley, a private detective, who has been active for two years past in seeking to fasten the crime upon Rudge.

Rudge said today that he had never been in Sunol. He spoke freely about the case, giving particulars as to his movements in the past unhesitatingly.

OTHER WITNESSES.

The witnesses who have been called from other parts of the State, and who will probably be present at the adjourned session of the grand jury next Friday, are: K. H. Godfrey of Siskiyou, L. N. Hobson, deputy sheriff of Siskiyou county; Peter F. Gross of Woodland; J. J. Donavan, lodging-house keeper of San Francisco; James Regan detective sergeant of San Francisco; B. Martin of Livermore; Ed Lester of Pleasanton, and Attorney James P. Montgomery of Oakland.

PROMINENT FRUIT MAN BURIED AT SAN LORENZO

Host of Friends and Relatives Give Last Tribute to Henry Stenzel

SAN LORENZO, Feb. 10.—The funeral of Henry Stenzel, one of the best known fruit growers in California, who died Saturday morning in the Merritt Hospital following a second operation, took place at 2 o'clock today from the residence in San Lorenzo. The remains were sent to San Lorenzo Saturday afternoon, and were today interred in San Lorenzo cemetery in the presence of a large gathering of sorrowing relatives and friends. Services were conducted at the house in Central Grove and at the cemetery by Rev. Monroe Drew. Many floral offerings were sent by friends of the family.

Stenzel, with his brother Fritz Stenzel, operated one of the biggest fruit ranches in the State at San Lorenzo, since the death of the senior Stenzel. He was one of the biggest fruit shippers in the State and cultivated large areas of apricots, prunes, currants and other fruit at his ranch. The Stenzel family has been prominently identified with the progressive life of Alameda county for over half a century. The senior Stenzel, one of the pioneers in the county, planted the ranch in San Lorenzo, where Henry Stenzel has resided all his life.

The widow, Mrs. Hattie Stenzel, was, before her marriage, Miss Hattie Kuergel, daughter of Robert Kuergel, a pioneer merchant of Oakland.

The girl left her home after telling friends that she found life in Oakland "too slow." The girl was employed in the telephone office, but found the work irksome. She called on Mrs Delia Carlton, 426 Twenty-fifth street, Thursday night and told her she wanted to go away from Oakland.

SITE FOR OAKLAND ARMORY NOW IN QUESTION

Appropriation is Practically Assured, Says General Forbes.

Objection is Made to Out-of-the-Way Location for Building.

On the question of a city's right to deed land to the state depends the building of a $150,000 state armory building in Oakland, according to the best advice that Major R. J. Faneuf has at the present time. At the last session of the legislature the promise was made that this year Oakland should have an armory and two bills have been introduced in the legislature providing for the building.

Major General E. A. Forbes has been handling the Sacramento end and his letter to Major Faneuf concerning the situation is as follows:

"Your letter of recent date relative to the Oakland Armory Associatnon and the new armory, was duly received. Senator Hans introduced a bill for an armory calling for $250,000. The military committee cut it to $150,000 at my suggestion. It has passed up for second reading in March

"Mr. Hinkle, a chairman of the military committee in the Assembly, also introduced a similar bill in the Assembly. The bill is in good shape for passage and I shall do whatever I can for it.

"However, it has been the settled policy of the governor since coming into office not to sign bills for state buildings in any municipality which did not furnish the sites for the same, and his instructions to me this year are to help no bill which does not provide for the donation of a site. Senator Hans and I have changed the Oakland armory bill to read that the armory shall be erected on a site to be donated to the state by the city.

"I shall urge the passage of this bill before any other armory bill in accordance with the promise made last session."

WANT CENTRAL LOCATION.

"In considering the site for an armory the first factor is location," said Major Faneuf this morning. 'This must be central. It would not do to have it at the Sixteenth street depot or in some out-of-the-way park, and in city property, park sites are the only thing available.

"Various organizations have assured us that the building can be placed near the auditorium in Peralta park, which is the only place in the city that has been favorably brought to our notice.

"With that site assured the next question is the matter of deeding it to the state. If this can be done the armory is practically assured Oakland, for the bill is almost certain to go through."

AGED WOMAN NEAR DEATH IN WATER

Crippled Inmate of County Infirmary Falls Into Lake.

Becoming confused in the fog, and losing her path, May Dennis, an aged and crippled inmate at the county infirmary, this morning fell into the lake on the infirmary grounds and narrowly escaped death before being rescued by William Brannan, outside nurse at the institution, who, hearing her cries for help, arrived on the spot and pulled her from the water.

Mrs. Dennis, who is 82 years of age, is suffering from a cancer, which has partially crippled her, and this fact made it impossible for her to recover her balance when she stumbled on the brink of the pond. She is extremely infirm and her eyesight is poor.

Mrs. Dennis has been in the habit of taking a walk in the morning, and today decided to walk about the lake. The fog prevented her from observing her surroundings, and she strayed from the path. She was brought to the hospital, and, after medical treatment had been administered, was none the worse for the experience.

LEPERS SHY AT SMALLPOX CASES

Pest House Patients Afraid; Apply to Authorities for Protection.

The prospect of a combination of smallpox and leprosy has no alluring features for the two leper patients at the pesthouse in the county infirmary. This morning, hearing that several smallpox patients were on the grounds, and having been told that these were to be placed near their tents, they applied to the hospital authorities asking that this procedure be avoided. They were reassured by Dr. C. A. Wills, the superintendent, who informed them that the smallpox pesthouse was half a mile away.

The two lepers, one of whom is a boy, seemed exteremely afraid of the disease. "We have troubles of our own" declared one of them in making the complaint. There are three minor smallpox cases at the infirmary.

CLERK ADMITS CRIME AND THEN KILLS SELF

PETALUMA, Feb. 10.—Erwin Bremer, night clerk of the American Hotel, committed suicide some time yesterday in the main cell of the City Jail, where he was placed last night by Chief of Police Husler on a charge of petty larceny. Bremer blindfolded himself, then tied a piece of the bed sheet across his mouth and, after placing another large piece about his neck and attaching it to the cell door, stepped off a chair to his death. He was found this morning by Police Officer Bert Masten.

Bremer left a note telling his friends goodby. He wrote the note with a piece of licorice. At the city jail last night he confessed to Chief Husler that he committed crimes against several small boys, to whom he had given articles stolen from guests at the hotel.

DONKEY-DING IS NEWEST DANCE

Ben Dillon Presents Novel Steps in "The Quacks" at Columbia.

"The Donkey-Ding" — what is it? Everyone has been asking the question since Washington society folk introduced it a week ago. It's a terpsichorean puzzle you can decide for yourself at the Columbia theater this week. Ben Dillon, the enterprising producer of the firm of Dillon & King, gave Oaklanders his conception of the dance at the opening performance of "The Quacks," yesterday afternoon. It's a variety of dance steps introducing everything from the cakewalk to the grizzly bear and the Texas Tommy. Whatever it is, it's decidedly sensational, at least Columbia enthusiasts think so.

Aside from the delicious comedy contained in the musical play, there are several notable features that takes the present offering out of the category of ordinary. A new song written by two Oaklanders received its premier introduction at the opening performance. Martin Hobbs, the 'cellist of the Columbia orchestra, composed the music, and A. H. Shirk, a local newspaper man, penned the lyrics of "Absence," a plaintive melody introduced by Charlie Reilly. Several encores and much applause proclaimed the song as being as enjoyable as the voice of the singer.

L. B. Gross, a young composer of this city, had the pleasure of witnessing the success of his latest creation entitled, "Harmony Joe." The song was delightfully rendered by Clarence Wurdig of the Carson quartet. A pretentious number on the program was "Sleepy Rose," sung by Mattie Townsend and the Ginger Girls.

Large papier-mache rosebuds illuminated with colored lights from which show the smiling faces of the singers, add considerable novelty to the selection. The opening number, which contained the oriental melody "Towney Mongaiay," proved popular with the audience. A selection of popular songs sung by the Carson four and "One Man Band," sung by Al West, completed a most enjoyable musical program.

The plot is decidedly amusing. It's the old story of parents endeavoring to marry a stubborn daughter to a man with money. As usual, the girl is in love with another. In order to marry the man of her choice, she decides to appear as though she had lost her speech. Throat specialists are consulted without success. As last two tramps, Mike and Ike, endeavor to capture the reward offered for a cure. As Doctors Mope and Dope, they accomplish wonders. From this point the action is swift and the situations decidedly ludicrous.

Ben Dillon and Will King are most laughable as the two quacks. They are given splendid support by Charlie Reilly, Maude Beatty, Ernest Van Pelt, Vilma Stech, Al West and Mattie Townsend.

Dillon and King's latest offering contains a little of everything that is good in the musical comedy line.

RACING CARNIVAL SUCCESSFUL EVENT

Society Turns Out to Witness and Take Part in Sport.

HILLSBOROUGH, Feb. 10.—Under perfect weather conditions the pony racing carnival held on El Cerrito field under the auspices of the San Mateo Polo club was successfully run yesterday. Hundreds of society men and women were out, some to witness and others to participate in the sport. But one accident marred the day's program, when Miss Ysobel Chase, on Sprocket, was thrown to the ground just before the second race. Miss Chase pluckily resumed her sadale, laughingly declaring that she was unhurt.

There were numerous other narrow escapes from falls, but in each instance the rider managed to get his or her mount under control. Yesterday's affair was, according to the San Mateo officials, the most successful ever attempted hereabouts.

The results of the races follow:

First race—Polo pony scurry for gentlemen. 1, F. B. Elkins' Topo, owner up; 2, H. C. Hastings' Drucilla, owner up; 3, E W. Howard's Blue Eyes, Lyon up.

Second race—Polo pony scurry for ladies: 1, Mrs. R. Y. Hayne on Gold Dale; 2, Miss Ysobel Chase on Sprocket; 3, Mrs. Eugene Murphy on Sally.

Third race—Point to point cross country: 1 R. Y. Hayne on The Outlaw; 2, F. B. Elkins on Wireless; 3, Douglas Alexander on Unknown; 4, Charles Butters on Lovey Mary; 5, Mrs. Charles W Clark on Silverdale.

Fourth race—Polo ponies: 1, F. B. Elkins on Topo; 2, H. C. Hastings on Drucilla; 3, Paul Verdier on Bronco.

Fifth race—One mile open: 1, F. B. Elkins on Meal Ticket; 2, H. C. Hastings on Merry-Go-Round; 3, Fred G. Lyon on Fire Fly.

YEGGMAN COMES TO DEATH UNDER WHEELS OF TRAIN

Frank Monroe, an ex-convict and yegg, was killed last night at Seventh and Fallon streets by being struck as he was lying in what is believed to have been a drunken stupor beside the tracks of the Southern Pacific local electric line. Motorman Kayser saw the dark body lying beside the tracks and brought the train to a halt as fast as the brakes would operate. He was not in time to save the man's life, as his head was crushed by being struck by the lower step of one of the cars. The body was taken to the receiving hospital, but death had already occurred, and it was transferred to the morgue. Monroe was a native of New York, about 40 years of age. An inquest will be held.

AUTOPSY FAILS TO PROVE MURDER SUSPICION

W. Skelton Died of Strangulation; But Housekeeper and Companion Held.

Inquest Wednesday Expected to Develop Evidence; Borrowed Money Gone.

The police are holding Mrs Mamie Flynn and John Gilbert Bell, who were taken into custody in connection with the investigation of the death of William L. Skelton, pending the inquest over Skelton's remains. The autopsy proved that Skelton had died of strangulation from hanging, but the police are not yet satisfied that the suicide theory explains the peculiar facts surrounding the case.

The inquest will be held Wednesday morning at the branch morgue at Fruitvale. Captain of Inspectors Lou F. Agnew will hold Bell and the Flynn woman until after the coroner's jury has passed upon the case.

The disappearance of $550 which Skelton is known to have had in his possession is puzzling the police.

Skelton's body was found Saturday hanging from a rafter in his bedroom. The feet were just touching the floor, and the police considered that this indicated that the man might have met his death through foul play, and that he had been placed in this position afterwards to give color to a suicide theory.

The disappearance of the money added to the suspicions of Inspectors St Clair Hodgkins and Thomas Wood. They placed the Flynn woman and Bell under arrest in consequence.

An autopsy was held over the body yesterday by Dr. J. H Callen. The suicide theory was strengthened by the finding, as Dr. Callen showed that strangulation by hanging was the probable cause of death

Mrs. Flynn was Skelton's housekeeper, and was occasionally known as Mrs. Skelton and as Maude Kelly. Bell was a frequent visitor at the house. It is known that he induced Skelton to mortgage his home for $550, but the police have been unable to find what has become of the money. An investigation is being made to see whether he had a bank account or whether he had invested the money.

CHINATOWN PLAY IS PANTAGES ACT

Realistic Sketch by Walter Montague is Well Presented at Vaudeville House.

A bit of San Francisco's Chinatown has been transplanted to the Pantages stage, and much faithfulness has been shown in the transplanting. The entire action of Walter Montague's playlet, "Twenty Minutes in Chinatown," takes place on a narrow street in the Oriental quarter, through which shuffle Chinese of high and low degree, a police officer and a drunken sailor attempting to sing of what he is trying to do, giving the variations of "I was sailing along." Fan-tan players may be seen within one of the tiny rooms fronting on the street.

The story is of the secreting of Yip Sing, a Chinese slave girl, who has come from China to wed Toy Ling, a small merchant, but who is captured by Moy Song, a highbander, and is about to be sold to Sing Chang, a rich merchant. The slaying of Sing Chang by Toy Ling as the former is about to remove the girl from the house of Moy Song, and the propping of the corpse upright on a bench in front of the Moy Song dwelling in simulation of an opium-filled lounger, furnishes an exciting climax. A rainstorm occurs during the action of the sketch, and there are other realistic touches. The life of the Barbary Coast is pathetically introduced by Chinatown Mag, whose redemption through the efforts of Policeman Reardon furnishes one of the bright spots in the playlet.

MESSENGER BOY SCORES HIT.

Dugan, as a messenger boy, is responsible for the most of the laughs at the Pantages this week. He appears with Miss Raymond, but Miss Raymond doesn't count except in teasing fun from Dugan.

Josh Dale puts on the burnt cork, plays the violin, sings a bit and furnishes no end of conversation. His getaway is accomplished amid storms of applause, following one of his violin selections. He dares the audience to applaud him, and of course his dare is accepted.

A high class musical act is furnished by the four Burns Sisters, who are principally singers, but almost all of them are pianists, and one is a finished cellist. This reviewer is compelled to leave definition of the voice of one of the Burns sisters to one more musically versed. It may be a baritone, but was a close second to the bass in a male trio which followed. Said trio, composed of Lacey, Tavers and Butler, with Judson at the piano, furnish pleasing melody. So do the Spensers—whether Mr. and Mrs., or brother and sister, the program explaineth not. Their songs of the past and present are delightfully mingled.

Melnotte Lanoie troupe of wire walkers are from Ringling Brothers' circus and furnish a star act.

A selection from "William Tell" is being well rendered this week by the Pantages orchestra under the direction of S. W. Rosebrook. The Gaumont weekly motion picture affords the usual interest.

MERMAIDS RACING TO GAIN CHANNEL GLORY

HAZEL LAUGENOUR SAILS FOR ENGLAND

Striving to Beat Nell Schmidt Just as She Did at Golden Gate.

MISS HAZEL BESS LAUGENOUR.

Score one! The final lap of the race from Alameda and Berkeley across the Atlantic to England, where an attempt will be made to swim the English Channel has been won from Nellie Schmidt of the Island City by Miss Hazel Bess Laugenour a graduate of the University of California.

Never did keener rivalry exist between mermaids of the deep than has ranked in the hearts of these two aspirants for aquatic honors. It dates from the time that Miss Laugenour swam the Golden Gate being the first woman to perform this difficult feat, by stealing a march on several other girls who were to brave the tides on the following morning.

Now Miss Laugenour has started for England without saying a word until she reached New York about her intention to swim the English Channel. This secrecy was deemed necessary in order that Miss Schmidt might not leave her vaudeville engagement in Spokane and hasten to England ahead of her.

It has always been Miss Schmidt's ambition to swim the English Channel, and the many unkind words said of Miss Laugenour at the time she swam the Golden Gate are said to be responsible for that young lady's present action in again attempting to best her local rival by being first for the second time.

What Miss Schmidt will do when she hears of Miss Laugenour's intentions are not known, but it is believed that she will start for England at once in the hope that by some delay she may beat her Berkeley competitor. Miss Laugenour graduated from the State University with the class of 1911, and for the past year has been engaged in theatrical work.

SUICIDE LEAVES STRANGE WILL

Man Who First Attempted Murder Orders Ashes Scattered to Four Winds.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 10.—"I will it that my ashes be scattered to the four winds of heaven." This is a clause in the last will and testament of Robert Heller, a brass worker who shot an unoffending drug clerk yesterday morning, and then put two bullets through his heart. The sealed envelope containing the will was opened this morning by Chief Deputy Coroner Kelly and Public Administrator Hynes on the theory that it might show some motive for the attempted murder and suicide.

It was just before 11 o'clock yesterday morning that Heller entered the drug store at Fillmore and Sutter street, and after asking for a bottle of medicine shot the clerk, Al Irwin, as he was reaching to get it. The bullet plowed its way through the fleshy part of the clerk's shoulder but the injury was not serious. One of the proprietors was running for the police when two more shots rang out and Heller fell dead to the floor. He had been armed with two revolvers, one of which was an automatic. He was evidently quite insane as Irwin had never seen him before and had done him no injury.

Heller lived at 572 Eddy street but little is known of him there.

The will leaves $5 to William Heller, a son, and mentions the fact that the wife of the deceased was divorced from him. The balance of his property after the funeral expenses are paid, is to be given to the Red Cross. Successful Root and Herb Remedy

The study of roots and herbs, their character and power over disease, was what led Lydia E. Pinkham of Lynn, Mass., to produce for woman's ills the most successful remedy the world has ever known, and while she passed to her reward some years ago, her work among suffering women is still carried on by trained assistants and many tons of roots and herbs are consumed annually in the manufacture of the now famous Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as originated by her.

FEDERAL AID ON ROADS PROPOSED

Convention Will be Held in Washington During Month of March.

(By EDMUND CRINNION.)

Farmers, business men and roadusers will be involved in what undoubtedly will be the most interesting session of the forthcoming Federal Aid Good Roads Convention in Washington, D. C. In the evening meeting of March 8 the National Grange, the Chamber of Commerce of the United States and the American Automobile Association will supply their most prominent highways advocates. Senator Jonathan Bourne, chairman of the joint committee of Congress, which is now investigating the subject of federal aid, has been invited to preside at this evening gathering, the conclusion of which will be in the form of an illustrated talk by Warden Thomas J. Tynan of the Colorado State penitentiary. No man in the United States has accomplished so much as Warden Tynan in the use of prison inmates in the building of roads, and all this with methods that embrace an honor system an absence of guards and the wearing of citizens' clothing.

The National Grange spokesman will be C. S. Stetson of Maine, chairman of its executive committee, one who has given much thought to the roads question in its relation to the men and women living in the country. It is expected that President Harry A. Wheeler will speak for the Chamber of Commerce and the interest of his organization in the improvement of the highways has been an inevitable development. The automobile industry, the growth of which has been a business wonder, is well represented in the National Chamber of Commerce. Prominent examples are H. A. Meldrum, former president of the Automobile Club of Buffalo and now the president of the local Chamber of Commerce and identified with one of the largest motor car manufacturing concerns.

A statement issued recently by a group of prominent automobile manufacturers predicts that during 1913 over 300,000 cars will be manufactured and placed on the American market. Last year 250,000 cars, exclusive of motor trucks, were produced. No other industry has ever shown such marvelous growth on American soil. At the present time there is an automobile in use for every 110 persons in the United States, the total of vehicles being in excess of a million.

Manufacturers of trucks are just now looking into the future of the use of commercial vehicles on a scale that would startle the general public if the plans were made known. The general belief today among clear-headed truck builders is that before the end of another decade the motor truck will have come into as common use on the farms as the farm wagon or any class of modern farm machinery. The extended use of farm motor trucks will, of course, depend largely upon the general development of improved highways and the two will progress together.

Every member of Congress will be invited to attend this comprehensive evening meeting and in numerous instances the local boards of trade and automobile clubs have named as convention delegates their Senators and Congressmen, many of whom have stated positively their intention of being present. The dates of the convention are March 6 and 7, and the place is the Raleigh Hotel.

CHINESE NEW YEAR IS OBSERVED BY PUPILS

After a vacation of one week the pupils of the Chinese Baptist mission school of this city returned this morning to their studies, which are conducted by Miss Jennie Egli. During that period the Chinese New Year was celebrated and every youngster took part in the observance. There are about forty-five boys and girls in the class, which is maintained by the Baptist churches and a small voluntary offering from the parents.

"The past year's work has been very satisfactory," declares Miss Egli, who has been the instructor in that institution for a number of years. "There is great need for more room for the accommodation of the pupils. The older students are compelled to study in the same room with the kindergartners and this causes much confusion and annoyance. Much discomfort could be alleviated if there were more room and sufficient funds to carry on the work."

CHICAGO PLANS COAL PIPE LINE

Engineer Has Scheme to Cut Down Cost of Coal Transportation.

CHICAGO, Feb. 10.—The transportation of coal from the Illinois fields to Chicago by pipe line is a project said to be well under way by local financiers. A meeting will be held tomorrow at which details for financing the proposition will be taken up. The plan is to pump the coal by hydraulic power which, it is argued, can be done at a cost impossible for the railroads to meet.

Isham Randolph, engineer of the sanitary district, is the expert behind the project, and says the process will revolutionize the coal carrying trade.

Mr. Randolph has been working on the engineering problems involved for two years and it is said the right of way for the pipe line has been obtained.

The idea of carrying coal in this way came to the engineer after watching a park dredge at work. He saw boulders more than six inches in diameter which had been taken from Lake Michigan pumped through leaky, irregularly-laid pipes for more than half a mile. The coal, which is much lighter, will have to be broken to a certain extent before it can be pumped.

The annual consumption of coal in the city for steam making purposes is about six million tons.

RING HIS FIRST THOUGHT.

HAVRE DE GRACE, Md., Feb. 10. God D. Todd, the hostler who has inherited $300,000, yesterday admitted that the first purchase he would make with his new-found wealth would be an engagement ring. PASTOR TELLS OF LINCOLN'S LIFE

H. A. Jump Speaks of Former President at Church Service.

No American is patriotic in any thorough and intelligent sense, declared Rev. Herbert A. Jump in the First Congregational church yesterday morning, unless he knows the life of Abraham Lincoln. "Ex-Governor Hughes of New York State once declared that in all of our schools and colleges and wherever young men and women are trained, there ought to be course in Lincoln. It was a profoundly wise suggestion. This course in Lincoln would have far more practical value for future American citizens than many courses in mathematics and languages now deemed necessary to education," said the pastor.

"Lincoln is a national asset. Noble with the nobility of a god, tall and gaunt of physique but tender in spirit, awkward in gesture but graceful with an innate chivalry, scattering his benignant presence abroad like some glorious tree overshadowing an old-fashioned New England farmhouse, he seems fairly to fill his quarter century of American history. He is like the ocean liner plowing her steady course up the harbor. When she comes into view we forget all the petty dartings of the little craft, and fix our eyes upon her majestic grandeur. Other statesmen in our national hero-gallery were splendid. Lincoln was supreme. They were local, he is universal."

KILLED BY TRAIN.

Frank Monroe of New York was struck and fatally injured by a Southern Pacific electric train on the west end of the Seventh-street trestle last night. He was taken to the Emergency Hospital, but died before he reached there. He was lying on the trestle and was struck by the gate of the car before the motorman could stop the train.

TEACHERS AS ELECTION OFFICERS SAVE MONEY

Assisted by Harry L. Boyle, school director, Dr. Carl Wallizer is compiling a table of comparative figures based on data obtained from the county clerk's office, showing the cost of elections as now conducted and the cost under a proposed system of utilizing the school houses and public buildings for polling places, the school teachers as election officers and the consolidation of voting precincts. Their comparisons show possible saving to the county of 75 per cent, or $18,271 for each election.

Kidney diseases are the most common of human ailments, yet are among the last recognized by patient and physician alike. Too often only the symptons are treated, and the original source of all trouble is left to undermine the system. Headache, dizziness, nervousness, indigestion, loss of appetite, a weak tired feeling and dropsy are some of the indications of disordered kidneys.

Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Remedy

possesses remarkable remedial qualities. It relieves the most distressing and agonizing cases of Kidney troubles. Its efficacy has been proven and testified to by thousands during the last 36 years. Made from the purest ingredients.

"Health and Strength Restored"

The Revolution in Mexico.

The news from the Mexican capital reads like a tale from the Arabian Nights. Felix Diaz is an example of the sudden and violent changes of fortune so dear to the Oriental imagination. One day a captive who might at any day be taken out and shot, and the next day a dictator with a cheering army at his back; master of the capital in which he was held a prisoner and lord of the men by whom he was guarded.

This might occur in Constantinople, Teheran or Cabul, but one would not expect to hear of such things in this day in a country on the American continent.

It is evidence of the instability of the government in Mexico, the impotence of Madero, and the spirit of discontent which prevails throughout the southern republic. Madero has proved himself a failure. He did not keep the promises with which he excited the Mexican population to rebellion against Porfirio Diaz, and he proved himself incapable of restoring order and giving the country peace. He kindled the flames of revolution and apparently is about to perish in them. Ever since he drove Diaz from Mexico and succeeded to the presidency, the country has been gradually drifting into anarchy and bankruptcy. Unable to suppress the insurrections which continually sprang up in the states remote from the capital because he was afraid to withdraw the troops from the seat of government; he was afraid the populace would rise and depose him unless overawed by a strong military force.

A large part of this army has now rebelled against him and accepted the leadership of Felix Diaz, nephew of the expatriated dictator whose strong arm kept Mexico in subjection to law and order for thirty years. Mexico is tired of revolution and disorder and longs for a return of the firm, just rule of Porfirio Diaz. Felix Diaz is popular because he is nephew to the old chief, and in the eyes of the populace represents the forces of order.

With his army in revolt and his capital in the hands of his enemies, Madero fatuously says the rebellion has been quelled and that the people are behind his government. No one can tell what is to come out of the ferment, but it is to be hoped that it will be a patriot and a strong man whose talents and character will command public confidence. If Felix Diaz is such a man he will be the second of his name to save Mexico from anarchy. The Madero myth has exploded and the Madero government broken in pieces. A conflict for supremacy between rival chiefs can only be averted by a strong hand and a clear head.

Will Felix Diaz prove the man of the hour? His fiasco at Vera Cruz makes one doubtful, but now he has a better chance to show the stuff that he is made of, and it is to be hoped that he has iron enough in his blood to master the situation. With his years and opportunity there would be no doubt that Porfirio Diaz would succeed.

Impression grows that Dr. Frederick Franz Friedmann, the discoverer of an alleged tubercular serum, is a faker and not a scientist. The introduction of a mysterious Frau Zoch, who warns him that if he comes to America he will be murdered, is an indication of charlatanism not to be misunderstood. Dr. Friedmann is trying to evade a show-down and is resorting to stage tricks to avoid submitting his formula to a scientific test.

The Problem of Genius.

There is in the mind of the ordinary man an attitude of reverence and a feeling of wonder directed toward the creative genius, whether his work be in art or literature or statesmanship. The ordinary man realizes in his moments of introspection the bitter reality of his own limitations and it becomes a matter of wonderment and profound mystery to him when somebody transcends those limitations in large achievement.

Patiently the ordinary man considers the life and the work of the genius. The problem presents itself with acute force from time to time to some quiet pedant in a college, who has expended years of devotion to some subject, and who has never been able to see even his own field of work in one of those flashes of inspiration which illuminate the vision of the man of genius.

Various inadequate theories have been advanced to account for genius, ranging from the bald assertion that the genius does not actually exist and is mere fiction of the imagination to the shelving of the problem by invoking for genius a divine origin.

Recently the dry-as-dust investigators have been enjoying themselves by inventing various origins of genius in physiological or pathological conditions. Dr. Max Nordau was one of the early advocates of the connection of insanity and genius. Nordau based his conclusions for the most part upon a wide but superficial reading and study of the artists of his day, and upon the researches of the late Dr. Cesare Lombroso of degeneracy, crime, insanity and morbid expressions of art.

The most recent outcropping of the attempt to explain the superiority of the genius to the ordinary man by a recourse to pathology is that of Dr. Charles B. Reed of the medical college of Northwestern University. To Professor Reed it appears that certain poisonous substances in the blood impart an abnormal stimulus to the system something similar to that of drugs, and that these wonderful workers owe their powers of concentration and achievement to these toxic elements. He cites as instances of men who have been driven to creative work by disturbances of the bodily metabolism the indefatigable Gibbon, Bulwer Lytton, Landor, Steele, Milton, Dryden, Fielding, De Foe, Schiller, Poe and Shelley, with their well-known peculiarities and abnormalities.

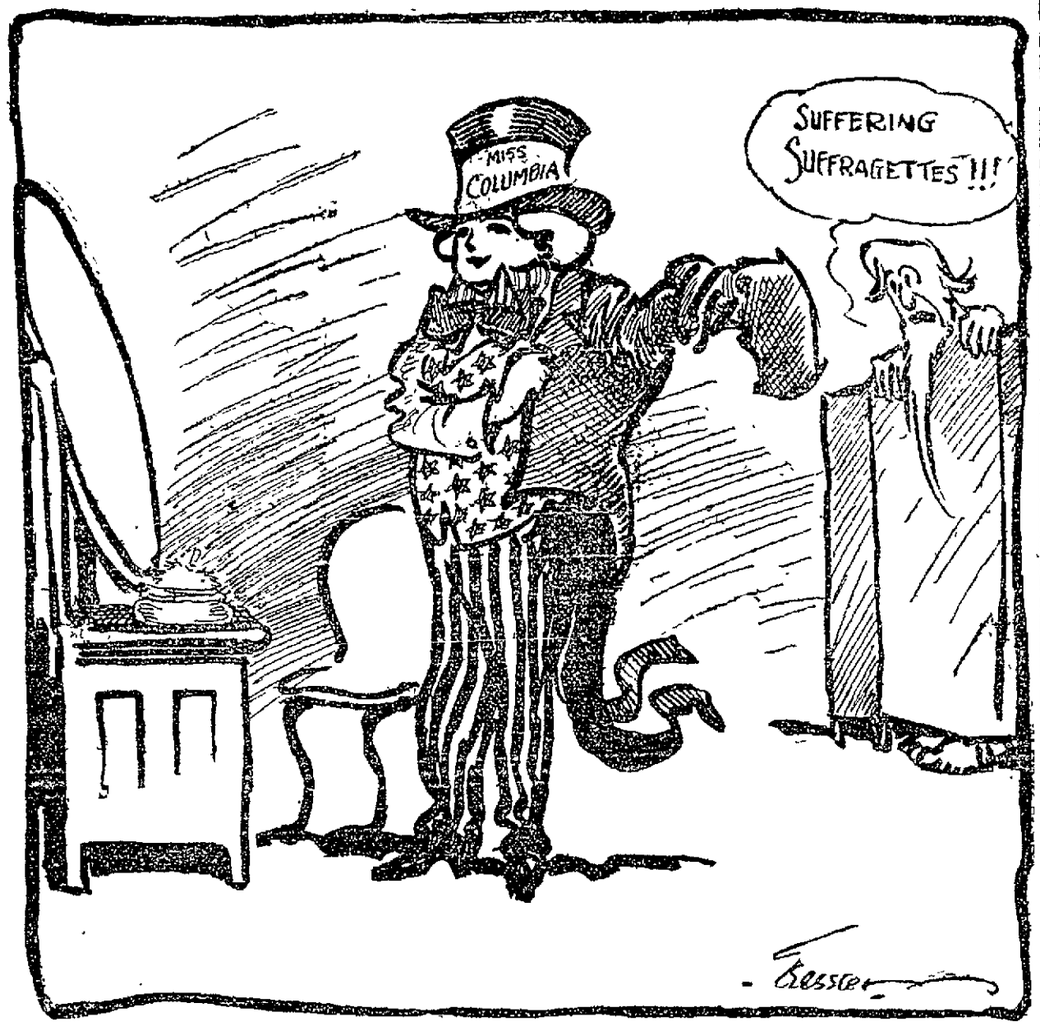

Some time ago Dr. Gould made an exhaustive study of the genius of Flaubert and of Lafcadio Hearn as conditioned by myopia.

Bernard Shaw is inclined to scoff at these theories connecting art and genius with abnormality. Shaw declares that the real artist is the really normal man, and that the rest fall short of normality. In his early writing he cited the instance of his own eyesight, which was perfect. It was pointed out to him that perfect eyesight could be found in less than one out of ten of the ordinary population, and that in a sense it was an abnormality to be absolutely normal in this regard.

The parable holds good in many other instances, and Shaw points out that in many instances the advocates of the poison and pathology theories have merely taken as alleged "stigmata of degeneration" in the geniuses they have been attacking features which are common to the whole human race.

With all the discussion about it, the problem of genius remains a real problem in human life, and one that will perhaps never be solved. Sufficient, for the day is the full realization that the human race has in its long period of evolution produced men who have stood head and shoulders above the throng and have been hailed by their fellow men and the passing generations under the divine designation of genius.

THE INAUGURAL REHEARSAL

—ST. LOUIS TIMES.

CAUSES OF BALDNESS

Dr. Guelpa of Paris has made some interesting studies pertaining to the scalp and the hair, which have led him to conclude that men are more frequently bald than women for three reasons First of all, they wear hard, heavy hats; secondly, they cut their hair too short both in summer and winter, and in the third place men usually are greater eaters than women.

Dr. Guelpa points out that the scalp can actually be compared to soil, the hair to the vegetation springing from that soil When the soil is poor and improperly looked after microbachli attack it and kill off its vegetation. Similarly, if the scalp is not properly cared for the hair stops sprouting.

Each hair consists of a canal, the root or matrix and the sebum, an oily substance which supplies the hair with nourishment. Under normal conditions the sebum is a liquid oil. In illness or if irritated or unduly subjected to pressure the sebum thickens, coagulates and forms hard little globules which choke up the matrix. The hair is shut off from its sources of supply and withers

It will readily be seen that a heavy and hard hat is bound to exert a deleterious pressure. Clipping the hair or wearing it very short leaves the hair at the mercy of atmospheric conditions of cold, heat and dust.

The sebum, like all oily substances, tends to coagulate when the temperature is low, and while the long hair of women affords a protection that is ample against this condition, the short hair of men positively invites destruction of the hair roots.

A meat diet increases the proportion of acids in the blood and consequently also increases the acids in the waste thrown off by the body in the form of perspiration This acid perspiration is particularly harmful to the hair as it stimulates unduly the flow of the sebum, and as the hair cannot absorb this unusual amount of fluid placed at its command, the fluid thickens around the roots of the hair and clogs them up.

As obese persons perspire more freely than thin individuals, the explanation is at hand for the baldness, which invariably adds to the misery of the fat man.

If men would substitute light felt hats for derbys in winter and wear soft straw instead of the hard-as-board straw hats with which they adorn themselves in summer, baldness would soon be on the wane among them.—London Standard.

CURIOUS CUSTOMS

Old rules still obtain in the British navy, among them that which forbids the health of the king to be drunk aboard ship while standing up. They always drink the health of the king sitting in the British navy and are very proud of the difference between them and their comrades of the land service. The explanation is simple. In the old days of wooden vessels the deck above was perilously near the head of a man even of average height and in many cases if an officer rose with any alacrity, as all should do to drink the health of the head of the state, he nearly dashed his brains out against the ceiling of the cabin.

Wheeling, in West Virginia, has been considering the question of kissing in public solely from the twentieth century hygienic aspect. Cato, the elder, the type of old Roman austerity, did not, worry about hygiene, but was thinking only of morals when he prided himself upon having embraced his wife in their daughter's presence only once, and that when she was frightened by a thunder storm. Neither consideration troubled the London women of 1612, of whom a Venetion report says: "When they walk in the street, if they meet a friend they take his hand and kiss him full on the mouth and go into some tavern and eat with him. And their people do not take it ill. And they are most beautiful ladies and most pleasant."

Small change was more common in Saxon days than at later periods in English history. For, while the Normans coined nothing but silver, the earlier Saxons were accustomed to the use of brass in addition. The number of things—not always metals—of which British coins have been made is surprising. Julius Caesar is said to have coined leather money in Britain, James II tried pewter and gunmetal, and some antiquaries have thought that pieces of coal were once used as money. At any rate, coal was once a slang term for money, as is the French braise (live coal) at the present day.—Chicago News.

WARLIKE ALBANIANS

Albania, whose future is now in question, has been compared to the highlands of Scotland in the sixteenth century, when all the clans were in constant feud one with an- "Many a time," says Foster Fraser, "I have thought of similarities between Albania and Scotland. There are parts of the country reminiscent of the highlands. The passionate love of country is characteristic of both peoples. The alertness of the Scotch highlander to resent insult is only [illegible] the quickness of the Albanian to shoot any one who may disagree with him. The quilted petticoat of the Albanian is certainly similar to the highlander's kilt. And if you hear the wail of Albanian music in the hills you can without much stretch of imagination fancy you are listening to the skirl of the bagpipes."

The blood feud is the best known of Albanian institutions, but there are fraternities as well in which blood also figures. Two young Albanians will take a vow to stand by each other through life, and the relation established is so sacred that the children of the two may not marry. Among the Mirdites young men who take this vow first receive the communion together and then drink wine with which a few drops of the blood of both have been mingled.

Two such vowed friends, the story goes, once discovered that they were both in love with the same woman, a Turk. Their solution of the difficulty was peaceful—from their own point of view. For they drove their daggers together into her heart.—Chicago News.

COD LIVER OIL AND IRON

Two Most World - Famed Tonics Combined in Vinol.

Cod Liver oil and Iron have proved to be the two most successful tonics the world has ever known—iron for the blood and the medicinal curative elements of cod liver oil as a strength and tissue builder for body and nerves and for the successful treatment of throat and lung troubles.

Two eminent French chemists discovered a method of separating the curative medicinal elements of the cods' livers from the oil or grease which is thrown away, but to these medicinal elements, tonic iron is now added, thus combining in Vinol the two most world famed tonics

As a body-builder and strength creator for weak, run-down people, for feeble old people, delicate children, to restore strength after sickness, and for chronic coughs, colds or bronchitis or pulmonary troubles.

We ask you to try Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you.

For Hair Health

If Rexall "93" Hair Tonic does not improve the health of your scalp and hair, we will pay for what you use during the trial.

We could not so strongly endorse Rexall "93" Hair Tonic and continue to sell it to the same people if it did not do all we claim. Should it not prove entirely satisfactory our customers would lose faith in us, we would lose their patronage, and our business would suffer.

MRS. LANGTRY HAS AMUSING PLAYLET

"Mrs. Justice Drake" Depicts Life as Cartoonists Insist it Will be.

(By LEO LEVY.)

A bit interesting—these come-backs of those who once occupied columns in the newspapers and hours of conversation. One hangs on their entrance with curiosity and a sliver of suspense; sighs with relief if they pass muster, or with regret if time has been a boon companion; looks with spy-glass minuteness for other-day traits and finds them or not with the same degree of interest. There's a book of keen observation in attendance at the return of these erstwhile celebrities.

The curiosity that precedes Mrs. Langtry, at the Oakland Orpheum this week, quickly subsides and soon you take her presence for granted. After all, it isn't so remarkable that she should return—and to vaudeville. Nothing is remarkable in vaudeville, except, perhaps, it is something not of interest.

IT'S ALL SETTLED.

And so, Mrs. Langtry is before you, and that's all there is to it. If you were in at her triumphs, a long time ago, you may confide in your neighbor that she does or does not hold her age well. If you must still claim youth as your chief asset, it is yours to judge the lady by her ability, her play by its qualities and the production by its effect on the auditience.

Mrs. Langtry is Mrs. Justice Drake, in a playlet of that name. As president of the High Court of Divorce—the time is 1920—Mrs. Langtry is called upon merely to look the part of a woman of 45 or thereabouts and to accentuate those vanities that writers of farces and cartoonists insist belong to womankind. She is absolutely successful. Her touches are not light, but are telling and she is careful not to cross the line that divides comedy from farce.

IS DRAMATIC CARTOON.

"Mrs. Justice Drake" is one of those dramatic cartoons that crop out now and then. It is not new, if you have followed the bent of newspaper cartoonists. Powers, for instance, has insisted for two years that what happens in this playlet will come to pass when women get what the suffragists call "rights."

Mrs. Justice Drake, sitting in the divorce case of the Buntings, judges the thing before hand. All men are brutes; therefore, Mrs. Bunting is to get what she wants, and Bunting to get the deuce. But, when Bunting appears, radiates his manly beauty, chucks the judgess under her chin, tickles her vanity with feathery words and makes ardent love to her—can you guess what happens to Mrs. Bunting's divorce case?

The playlet is mildly amusing—a downy affair that needs be weighed on a jeweler's scale. Yesterday's matinee audience acquired a fair-sized share of amusement out of it, but failed to wax loudly enthusiastic. We rather think it went better last evening—after dinner. Warm indulgence cometh with a full stomach.

OTHER GOOD THINGS.

There are numerous other good things on the new bill. James H. Cullen returns for the fourteenth time and does much by doing little. Cullen defies analysis. His work is to dispose of several minor comic songs and parodies, none of which demands more than passing thought. Perhaps it is his infinite good humor that turns the trick; there's nothing will give it a prettier twist.

Lolo, an Indian mind reader, whose act appears devoid of trickery, works with incredible swiftness. She does the best lot of thought transference—or whatever you may tag it—that the Orpheum stage has given the public. Lolo, too, is a sharpshooter, scoring bullseyes with arrow and rifle while her eyes are sealed.

Ethel May Barker possesses youth and beauty and the ability to draw capital music from a violin. Brilliancy and strength are not her's in quantity, but there's everything to praise in her graceful, faultless technique, the tone qualities of her playing and her care to avoid fiddling.

Good vaudeville, too, is the remainder of the bill. The acts are those of the Youngers, splendid specimens of health and physical beauty, in a series of athletic poses; Arnold and Dorothy Grazer, in musical and dancing bits; John and Winnie Hennings, "the kill kare kouple"; and the Amoras Sisters, acrobats, dancers and amusing cut-ups.

WANT JOHNSON SAYS OLE HANSON

Washington Progressive Thinks Governor Will be President.

Ole Hanson, who aspires to be the next United States senator from Washington, and who keeps at least one of his busy fingers on the public pulse at all times, frowned on the condition of San Francisco's streets, expressed his admiration for the hustle and bustle of the citizens, condemned the Spring Valley Water Company and praised the Panama-Pacific Exposition in one breath about twenty minutes after getting off the train.

"The general public is friendly toward the exposition project," he said, "and Washington is certain to appropriate at least $250,000 for a building and an exhibit. There is a strong feeling for a $500,000 exhibit. Incidentally, Portland people are determined that Oregon's legislature shall appropriate $300,000 for a similar purpose.

"Either Johnson, your Governor, or Albert Beveridge will be Washington's choice for President in 1916," he said. "The Republican party is third in point of influence. Taft received less than twice as many votes as Debs at the last election. The progressive party is being organized in every county in the state and paid secretaries are in charge of the work."

TEACHER WILL BE GRANTED HEARING

Miss Baxley to Face Accusers on Witness Stand; Has Lawyer.

Backed by a number of friends, and defended by an attorney, Miss Alice V. Baxley, transferred from the principalship of Fruitvale School No 8 to the Health school, will appear at the meeting of the board of education this evening to defend herself, and will demand a full hearing, at which her accusers will be put on the witness stand. This hearing, it is expected will be granted.

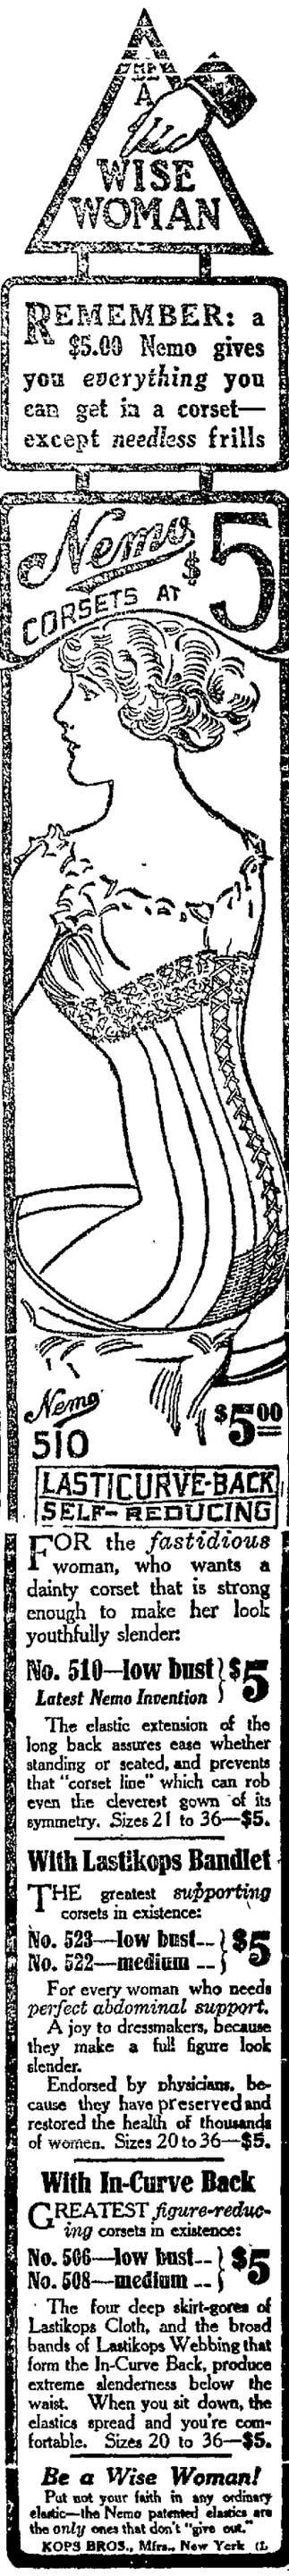

Last week the teacher's transfer was approved by the board, over the protest of Director Harry Boyle, who declared that, without a hearing, in view of informal charges made, the transaction was unfair. Other members of the board have since become convinced that Boyle's attitude was correct, and a trial will be arranged.

Superintendent McClymonds declares that the transfer was not based on the informal charges, but still believes that as long as gossip has arisen, a hearing is advisable. The matter of an alleged scandal arising in the school some time ago, when a girl was placed in an institution and a janitor dismissed, will not be gone into. It is probable that alleged ill-treatment of small boys by older pupils will be brought up. This matter was complained of by parents who asked that a man principal, able to cope with the situation, be placed in charge of the school. Miss Baxley will be asked if she is able and willing to look into this matter.

A vigorous protest against the installation of an intermediate high school class at the Emerson school will also be made this evening, the matter coming up on a reconsideration to be moved by Director Boyle. The protestants have a petition which will be presented. Superintendent McClymonds will stand firm in his recommendation that the school be used as directed, for the sake of the school department. "It is the only logical place," he declared this morning. "And there is no reason why it should not be so used. I have studied the Oakland school system for years, and certainly should know what is best for it."

Several verbal tiffs between McClymonds and the protestants are expected.

The matter of letting schoolhouses may come up for final decision. The board, as a committee, framed several tentative rules Saturday afternoon, and these will be submitted for debate.

EAR DRUM BROKEN IN SALOON FIGHT

Assault Made on San Lorenzo Man May Cause Loss of Hearing.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 10.—E. C. O'Connor of San Lorenzo may suffer the loss of the hearing of his right ear as the result of an assault made upon him in Spider Kelly's resort on Pacific street at an early hour this morning. O'Connor was thrown from the place and struck his head on the pavement. He lay prostrate and bleeding until an officer picked him up and sent him to the hospital. There it was found that his eardrum had been ruptured. He was unable to tell who it was who had hurled him through the swinging doors, but three detectives assigned from headquarters are working on the case.

CALIFORNIA HAS HALF NATIVES

Statistics Show Big Gains in Population; Schools Prosper.

The composition and characteristics of the population of California, as reported at the thirteenth decennial census, are given in an advance bulletin soon to be issued by Director Durand of the bureau of census, Department of Commerce and Labor. It was prepared under the supervision of William C. Hunt, chief statistician for population. Statistics of color, nativity, parentage, sex, citizenship, age, illiteracy, marital condition, school attendance and dwellings and families are presented.

A previous population bulletin for California gave the number of inhabitants by counties and minor civil divisions, decennial increase and density of population, and the proportions urban and rural. That and the forthcoming bulletin cover all the principal topics of the population census except occupations and ownership of homes.

Of the total population of California 1,106,533, or 46.5 per cent, are native whites of native parentage; 635,889, or 26.8 per cent, are native whites of foreign or mixed parentage; and 517,250, or 21.8 per cent, are foreign-born whites. The corresponding percentages in 1900 were 48.4, 29.7 and 21.2, respectively, the proportion of native whites of native parentage increasing somewhat during the decade. In 1910 Japanese constituted 1.7 per cent of the population; Chinese, 1.5; negroes, 0.9, and Indians 0.7.

Of the urban population, 44.4 per cent are native whites of native parentage; of the rural population, 50 per cent. The corresponding proportions for native whites of foreign or mixed parentage are 28.8 and 23.5 per cent, respectively. The percentage of Chinese and Japanese is 3 in the urban and 3.8 in the rural.

In the total population of the state there are 1,322,978 males and 1,054,571 females, or 125.5 males to 100 females. In 1900 the ratio was 123.5 to 100. Among native whites the ratio is 108.7 to 100, and among foreign-born whites 169.6 to 100. In the urban population there 113.6 males to 100 females and in the rural 147.8.

MANY CALIFORNIANS.

Of the native population—that is, population born in the United States—50.5 per cent were born in California and 49.5 per cent outside the state; of the native white population, 49.9 per cent were born outside the state. Persons born outside the state constitute a larger proportion of the native population in urban than in rural communities.

The total number of males 21 years of age and over is 920,397, representing 38.7 per cent of the population. Of the 297,365 foreign-born white males of voting age, 137,274, or 46.2 per cent, are naturalized. Males of militia age—18 to 44—number 665,522.

RICH YOUNG MAN TO HUNT WHALES

BOSTON, Feb. 10.—John Borden, a wealthy young man of Chicago, has completed fitting out the specially-built auxiliary yacht Adventuress, aboard which he expects to spend six months in hunting whales in the far north. Captain F. B. West of Provincetown, an old whaler, has been placed in command of the yacht and will probably start with it this week for Seattle. He has a bet with friends in New Bedford that the ten thousand miles trip around South America to Seattle will be made in less than one hundred sailing days.

U. S. MONEY ORDER BUSINESS IS LESS

Decrease of International Business Due to Postal Savings.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—International postal money orders business decreased nearly $12,000,000 during the last year. The decrease was due almost wholly, according to postal authorities, to the operation in this country of the postal savings system.

In the two years preceding the establishment of the system international money order business increased at the rate of $17,000,000 a year, and during the eight years previous to that period the average increase was approximately $9,000,000 a year. These figures indicate that much money heretofore sent from the United States to foreign countries for deposit and safe keeping now is being deposited in postal savings banks.

In the 13,000 postal banks the deposits now aggregate to $35,000,000. Postmaster-General Hitchcock is confident they will reach $60,000,000 during the fiscal year.

CARSON IS URGED AS GOVERNOR-GENERAL

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—A movement was started here today among congressman to urge President-elect Wilson to appoint Judge A. C. Carson of the Supreme Court of the Philippines governor-general of the islands, to succeed W. Cameron Forbes of Boston. Carson is an intimate friend of Senator Martin of Virginia, and Martin is said to be heading the movement to make Carson governor-general.

DISAGREES WITH PROFESSORS.

LONDON, Feb. 10.—Sir Joseph John Thomson, professor of experimental physics at Cambridge, in an interview yesterday said he disagreed with Sir William Ramsay, Professor Patterson, and Professor Collie in regard to their interpretation of their experimenas in the transmutation of metals. He said he had been following the same line of research for two years, and he believed that the glass apparatus was the source of the neon and helium which they found. He did not think anything that could be compared to a synthesis of elements had occurred.

BASE READY FOR RELIC OF MAINE

Spanish-American War Veterans Have Completed Plans for Patriotic Exercises.

The veterans of E. H. Liscum Camp, No. 7, have almost completed the concrete base on which they have been working during their spare moments and which is to hold the torpedo port facing of the Maine. This portion of the wreck was donated by the federal government to the Liscum Spanish-American War Veterans and every one who has worked on the base in Lakeside Park took part in the Spanish-American war.

Ten camps of veterans will be present at the unveiling of the monument next Sunday and it is planned to make the day a most auspicious one. As many of the survivors of the Maine as can be secured will have a prominent place during the exercises. Mayor Frank K. Mott and B. A. Forsterer, a veteran and department commander, will be the principal speakers. The marine band is to be brought over from Yerba Buena and the officials of the city and members of the police department will be accorded places of honor. Battery B will turn out in full to fire the salute.

MARE ISLAND BID FOR SHIP READY

May Land Construction Job Building Dreadnought.

VALLEJO, Feb. 10.—All details of the Mare Island bid for the dreadnought Pennsylvania have been practically completed at this navy yard, and when the final figures are attached today the bid will be sent to the Navy Department, where it will be opened February 18. As this is the first time Mare Island has been recognized as a contender in national shipbuilding awards, more than the ordinary interest is aroused over the result, and more than the ordinary care has been taken in the preparation of the bids.

The new high power wireless plant at North Head will be in operation by April 1, according to an announcement made today by Radio Expert George Hanscom, who departed for the north to oversee the final work. This will be the connecting link between the recently installed Alaskan plants and the high power stations in California.

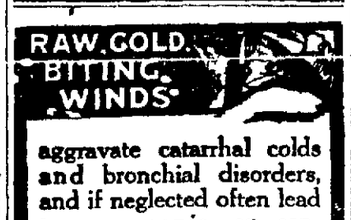

Additional repairs have been authorized on the lighthouse tender Madrona, which will delay the completion of work on that craft until February 24. The job will now amount to $10,000.

PRESIDENT OF SALVADOR DIES OF HIS WOUNDS

SAN SALVADOR, Feb. 10.—Dr. Manuel E. Aurajo, president of the republic of Salvador, who was wounded by the bullets of an assassin February 4, died yesterday.

Don Carlos Melendez will succeed to the office of chief executive.

President Aurajo was attacked and shot last Tuesday night by several men, one of whom, a Guatemalan named Virgilio Mulatillo, was arrested. Mulatillo confessed that the plot had been concocted in Guatemala City.

SENATORS DISCUSS WILSON'S CABINET

William Bryan as Secretary of State Furnishes Leading Topic at Luncheon.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—Senator Hoke Smith of Georgia, at a luncheon given here today by John Barrett, director-general of the Pan-American Union, to representatives of some of the Latin-American countries and members of Congress, referred to William J. Bryan as "one who had been mentioned prominently for Secretary of State in President Wilson's cabinet."

"Well, couldn't you tell us in executive session whether he is to be?" smilingly inquired Senator William Alden Smith of Michigan.

"Probably I could," was the reply, "but I have found that what happens in the executive session in the Senate always becomes known publicly soon after, and sometimes in twisted form."

"In a talk I had with Mr. Bryan some time ago he told me that the greatest work the State Department could undertake was the study of and co-operation with Latin-America, and that the United States was ready to serve, but not to interfere with them."

As for himself, Senator Hoke Smith asserted that he "would not stretch out to Latin-America a mailed hand, but one of generosity." In this the other speakers, Senators Gore and Smith of Michigan, and Chairman Flood of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, agreed, all voicing the sentiment that a spirit of broadest justice should prevail in the relations between this country and Latin-America.

In Cuba, declared Senor Rivero, Minister from that country, the "American desire for fair play" had resulted in an independence which the recent elections there had shown was being used aright, and had revealed to the rest of Latin-America that justice and humanity were all the United States demanded.

THE AUTO WORKED WELL; SO DID THE POLICEMAN

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 10.—Friends of George A. Pope, the capitalist, inquired of him yesterday his views on motorcycle policemen and speed laws and were met with angry looks.

Policeman Thorup of Burlingame, who arrested Pope for speeding in his brand new automobile last Saturday afternoon, did receive, however, the benefit of Pope's views on these matters.

Pope was taken to the justice of the peace and required to put up $20 for his appearance in court this morning. Then he went home and tried to forget it.

MARIN DAIRIES MUST HOLD BIG CLEAN-UP

MILL VALLEY, Feb. 10.—State Dairy Inspector Samuel E. Watson hurled a bomb into the camp of local dairymen last night when, after an unexpected tour of the nearby milk farms, he announced that should a regular credit examination of the places he visited be made at this time, few, if any, would be credited with 60 points, the minimum figure at which dairies can do business. Inspector Watson, while not making an official tour of inspection, notified the proprietor of every unsanitary dairy that he visited that the laws governing that business would have to be complied with at once.

REAR-ADMIRAL RELIEVED OF DUTIES AS AIDE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—Rear Admiral Charles E. Vreeland has been relieved of his duties as aide for operations to the secretary of the navy and will be succeeded by Rear Admiral Bradley A. Fiske, now aide for inspections. Admiral Vreeland is relieved at his own request as the state of his health makes it advisable that he have less arduous duties. He will continue as a member of the general naval board.

MAKES YOUR BACKACHE VANISH, DRIVES ALL RHEUMATIC PAINS AWAY

New Discovery Eases Stiff, Sore, Swollen Joints and Muscles Relieving Backache and Bladder Disorders After Few Doses Are Taken.

No matter how badly your suffer, how chronic your case may be, or what has failed to cure you, your pains will leave, your aches vanish and the torturous, killing backache or rheumatism will bother you no more.

This is what Croxone, the new scientific discovery, does for sufferers of such troubles. It cures these diseases because it reaches the cause and removes it. It soaks right into the walls and linings of the kidneys and cleans out the stopped-up, inactive organs like water does a sponge—neutralizes and dissolves every particle of uric acid and makes the kidneys sift from the blood all the waste matter and poisons that lodge in the joints and muscles to scratch and irritate and cause rheumatism. It soothes and heals the delicate linings of the bladder and leaves the kidneys in a clean, strong, healthy condition, so they can filter the blood and keep you well.

If you suffer with backache—have pains in the neck or sides—nervous or dizzy spells—a few doses of Croxone will relieve the congestion and you will be surprised how quickly all kidney, bladder and rheumatic troubles will disappear.

Croxone is different from all other remedies. It is not like anything else on earth ever used for the purpose. It starts to work the minute you take it and relieves your suffering the very first time you use it. It is so prepared that it is practically impossible to take it into the human system without results. You can secure an original package of Croxone at trifling cost from any first-class druggist. All druggists are authorized to personally return the purchase price if Croxone should fail in a single case.

ALONG journey is that begun by Mr. and Mrs. Ira P. Smith last night, when they left Oakland on the Owl for Los Angeles as the first lap of the tour. They will stop there to put Miss Ruby Smith, their daughter, in the Cumnock School for Girls, and after a short stay in the City of the Angels, will continue to New York, whence they will sail for Europe on February 20.

After two months in Europe they will sail for Brazil, where Mr. Smith has extensive business interests, and where they have made their home for several years. They will be joined there by Miss M. L. Lewis, a close friend of Mrs. Smith, who will visit them in Rio de Janeiro. During her stay she will be wedded to H. C. Petters, a prominent business man of the southern continent. Miss Lewis met her fiance while on a previous visit to the Smiths at their South American home.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith are planning to return to California about the end of 1913 to establish their permanent home in Oakland. They were much entertained during their recent stay here at the Hotel Oakland, and their many friends united in wishing them bon voyage and a safe return.

AFFAIR AT SAUSALITO.

Mrs. Alexander was before her marriage an Alameda belle.

At midnight a Dutch figure of the cotillion was danced, with Dutch caps and aprons for the women and steins for the men, and at supper the tables bore miniature reproductions of Dutch scenes, with tiny Dutch figures of men and women at all sorts of occupations. Twenty-four girl friends attended the announcement party.

WOMEN IN THE NEWS

FRIEDMANN CURE IS DISCOVERY OF WOMAN

Physician Declares Frau Zoch Gave Him the Method First.

BERLIN, Feb. 10.—Dr Friederich Franz Friedman fears he will be killed on his visit to the United States. Furthermore, a woman is the discoverer of the alleged cure for consumption. This information was gleaned yesterday by a reporter who kept an appointment previously made with the alleged savant.

After the reporter was ushered into the office and introduced to Dr. Harry Benjamin, one of the doctor's assistants, Doctor Friedmann said:

"I don't see why she shouldn't be present during our talk. Please open the door, Benjamin."

Doctor Benjamin stepped across the room and pressed a button. A secret door in the wall opened and there entered a woman. She was apparently between 35 and 40 years of age, dark and slim, with slightly irregular features and deep brown eyes. She immediately fixed her eyes upon Doctor Friedmann, who seemed to cower under her steady gaze.

"This is Frau Zoch," he said. "You may speak freely before her, for she knows as much concerning my discovery as I do myself, and she is the only person in the world who could manufacture my serum should anything happen to me."

Frau Zoch's dark eyes flashed and her face showed signs of excitement. Doctor Friedmann bent forward in his chair with the intense look of a prisoner awaiting a verdict.

Then Frau Zoch spoke:

"I was there when he drew blood from his first turtle," she said intensely. "That was fourteen years ago. He was a boy of 22 and I—well, I have kept a vigilant eye on him ever since. I will not go to America," she continued, in wavering tones, "and I don't believe you (addressing Doctor Friedmann) will go. Tomorrow morning when Professor Schleich tells you again they will kill you in America and take your serum away from you, you will change your mind and give your remedy to Germany."

Affinities Ancient

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 10.—In an Egyptian love letter of the third century before Christ, written on a papyrus by a priest to a priestess of the temple of Amena-Ra and discovered this week on the withered breast of the woman's petrified body in the Golden Gate park museum, is the proof that affinities existed in Egypt thousands of years ago.

This startling discovery was made by Curator George Barron and his assistants while rewrapping the mummy, which had been roughly treated in a recent fall when it was moved from one case to another. Soul mates were recognized in that day, even as in the twentieth century, as the hieroglyphics show.

Would Wash Dishes

CHICAGO, Feb. 10.—Miss Dora Wells, principal of the Lucy Flower Technical School, before the Ella Flagg Young Women's Club at the La Salle Hotel, asserted that school girls are anxious to learn how to wash dishes. She said that in her school she had established a waiting list for those who desired to learn this art.

Pope's Sister Stricken

ROME, Feb. 10.—Rosa Sartom, sister of Pope Pius X, who is 77 years of age, has suffered a stroke of paralysis and her left side is affected. Every day she talks over the telephone with the pope, who is very anxious about her condition, but she realizes the fact that her case is incurable.

Criticism of Our Women

By LILLIAN RUSSELL

Copyright, 1912, by Lillian Russell.

HOW we have another foreign woman of title departing from our midst, leaving as a parting shot a severe criticism of our women.

It always fills me with a feeling of resentment against invasion, when one of these estimable but short-sighted women enjoys our hospitality and then repays us by a vicious attack upon us as a class.

Women are much the same in all countries. The best are the best and the worst are the worst, and there is also the mediocre class as well.

This especial criticism which I resent is handed to us by the Baroness Von Pallandt of Holland. She compares American women to the species of fox. The restless, shifting eyed, wild animal, attractive to look upon but dangerous.

She declares that American women are intelligent, but not intellectual, that when pinned down to a subject they only display a superficial knowledge of it.

I am sorry the foreign lady met so few women, for as a class American women of intelligence go to the depths of a subject and know it from rock bottom to surface and then a little more.

The foreign lady accuses the American woman of hopping nervously about, which is the antithesis of the real American woman. For our tendency is to be phlegmatic, and it is only our real stamina and love of the fitness of things that awakens us from our inertia and compels us to move about and take exercise.

No country can exceed us in ambition, although they have older traditions and more, but not better examples of refinement and culture.

But the American mind is alert and progressive. And what the foreign lady took for restlessness may have been impatience at her obtruseness.

It is a well known fact that it takes a foreigner about 24 hours to get an American joke through his head. Perhaps it is no wonder this lady from Holland found the American mind beyond her conception.

I, for one, am proud of my race. I am pure American, being a descendant of the Mayflower and having had many ancestors in the revolution.

I may be pardoned if I resent the invasion of foreigners, when they accept our hospitality, and give us absolutely nothing in return but a superficial, patronizing criticism. We can do nicely without them.

To be sure, they resent the fact that our women marry their best men. But that is because our women possess the qualities to entertain and please, which they forget in their education to acquire.

There are ten beautiful women in America to one in any other country. I have made it a point to know what I write about. And for intelligence or intellectuality we can compete with the world.

Remember: Never judge a nation by your experience with a few of its people.

M. N.—Seven persons out of ten suffer excruciating pain at one time or another with their feet. A single corn, no larger than a grain of sand, can take all the "snap" and vitality right out of you.

Two-thirds of modern foot troubles are due to the fact that almost every one—man, woman, and child—wears his shoes too loose. The shoe itself may be correct as to size and shape, but it is not fastened tightt at the only point of control—namely, the instep.

When you set your foot upon the floor or pavement in the act of walking the shoe adheres to and, if it be loosely fastened over the instep, the foot pushes down into the toe of the shoe. As certain spots on the foot this slipping causes friction. These spots are the soles of the feet; the tops, ends and inner sides of the toes; the great and little joints, and occasionally the back of the heel.

Answers to Queries

MRS. J. A.—While it is sometimes inconvenient to shampoo your hair, I would not advise you to use a dray shampoo too often. Once in a great while it is all right. It makes the hair fluffy for a while but in time it will make it more oily than before. It closes the pores of the scalp and eventually causes the hair to fall. Take the juice of a lemon in a glass of ice water upon arising in the morning, or a dose of sal-hepatica every morning for two weeks, then skip a week. These are both good for reducing flesh, though it takes quite a long time before results are noticed. I shall be happy to send you the Berlin dietary for reducing flesh and the rolling exercise for reducing the hips, also a shampoo for oily hair, if you will send me a stamped, addressed envelope.

B. Y.—Tea unless taken in large quantities is less harmful than coffee, especially if well prepared in the Chinese manner and drunk without cream. Cocoa is fattening and makes an excellent substitute for coffee for the thin woman who wants to gain flesh. Don't think for a moment that you can be a victim of the coffee habit and have a good complexion. Coffee has a distinct and immediate effect on the nerves, and consequently on the circulation. Black coffee is not as bad, at least for the complexion, as coffee with cream and sugar, but go without it for awhile and see if you don't feel and look better.

MOTHER—I would advise you to get your son a pair of shoulder braces. There are several excellent braces on the market which hold the shoulders back, induce deep breathing, and when they are properly fitted to the individual are not uncomfortable. To my mind it is better to wear such a brace all the time than to exercise with the shoulders held back for a few minutes each day.

SCHOOL AND PLAYGROUND

LINCOLN'S MEMORY TO BE HONORED IN SCHOOLS

Lincoln Day, next Wednesday, will be observed by the school children of Alameda county on a larger scale than in previous years. Veterans of the Civil War have been detailed by the patriotic instructors of the various Grand Army posts to address the school children in the auditoriums of their institutions. Between the hours of 10 and 12 noon the patriotic program will be rendered.

Past Commander W. H. Atwood of Admiral D. D. Porter Post of Oakland, president of the Bay Counties Patriotic Instructors' Association, has been instrumental in securing representatives of the G. A. R. and affiliated organizations to address the students. The students of the Oakland High School will be addressed by Rev. William Keeney Towner of the First Baptist Church of Oakland.

The following is a list of the schools and names of the veterans who will visit them:

Lyon Post, No. 8, of Oakland, A. Burntrager, patriotic instructor; Piedmont School, Joseph H. Lawrence and Theodore F. Hood; Lincoln School, J. M. Boyden and Samuel Brown; Washington School, John W. PUPILS CHALLENGE BOATING TEAMS

AMY ANDERSON.
—Hartsook Photo.

Many of the members of the boating club of the Manual Training and Commercial High School enjoyed a number of rowing excursions on Lake Merritt during the past semester. Although there were no challenges with the various boating teams of the bay region, the young women, who declared that they worked under a disadvantage during the term, announce that they will be ready this year to meet their rivals. Everything is in readiness for a splendid boating season.

Among the girls in the club are Amy Anderson, Bessie Willits, Bessie Busher, Carolyn Norman, Celestine Bignami, Arrie Bignami, Josephine Marcus, Pearl Avery, Jessie Chaplin, Amelia Rohrback, Constance Fender, Helen Crocker, Flora Roulcau, Margaret Jackson and Esther Hansen.

VALENTINES MADE BY PUBLIC SCHOOL CHILDREN

Artistic valentines to be made by pupils will be distributed throughout the public schools on Friday afternoon, February 14. Every year the girls and boys in the primary departments manufacture their valentines, which are original and display the ingenuity of the children of the Oakland institutions. The tots make the valentines under the supervision of their teachers, who assert that the interest in the valentine industry increases each year and the pupils are becoming skilled in this particular line of art work. The students are looking forward to St. Valentine's day, when they will receive the placards, which will represent the efforts of their colleagues.

The patent office issued only 69,236 patents during 1911, from which it will be seen that Tom Edison had a rather poor year.

When Other Remedies Fail Try This!

No doubt you have tried many remedies for coughs and colds, and perhaps you have finally decided that there is nothing to do but "let it take its course and break itself." This is absolutely wrong. You should check your cough and cold the first day—and you can check it immediately by using Parker's Cough Syrup.

This medicine is a truly sovereign remedy for all affections of the throat and chest and one dose will relieve, one bottle will usually cure a cough. You should not neglect this important matter, but should get a bottle today and have it ready for the first sign of a cough or cold. All druggists sell it for 25c a bottle.

THOUSANDS ARE SLAIN IN GREAT BATTLE

MONTENEGRINS LOSE MANY SOLDIERS

Carry Great Bardanjoli Hill by Assault, in Attack on Scutari.

Turkish Army Leave 4000 Dead and Wounded on Field.

PODGORITZA, Montenegro, Feb. 10.—The Montenegrin army beseiging the Turkish fortress at Scutari carried the great Bardanjoli Hill by assault at 10:30 this morning after several hours of severe fighting.

The capture of the hill cost the victors 2500 men in killed and wounded. The Turks left 4000 men dead and wounded on the field of battle. The infantry came to such close quarters that hand-to-hand fighting was general along the line.

TO BOMBARD CITY.

Bardan Joli Hill dominates Scutari from the eastern side and the Montenegrins are mounting siege guns on the heights to bombard the principal points of the city.

Fighting has gone on since early morning all around the city. The Turkish defenders are disputing the ground with fierce determination. This heavy price paid by the victors and the defenders at Bardan Joli was made known in messages received today from the front.

A Montenegrin attack on the heights of Tarabosch, which dominate Scutari on the west, has been going on for three days. The onslaught is believed to have been as sanguinary as the engagement at Bardan Joli.

ROUT IS COMPLETE.

SOFIA, Bulgaria, Feb. 10.—The rout of the Turkish army before Bulair on Saturday is said here to have been complete. The Turks are reported to have suffered enormous losses.

The field of battle was littered with flags, field guns, machine guns and rifles left in flight by the panic-stricken Ottoman troops. The Turkish dead and wounded were lying thickly everywhere. Twenty officers were killed.

The war office says:

"The number of men killed among the Bulgarians is not yet known, but it appears to have been insignificant."

CRUISER AT PORT SAID.

WED IN NEW HOTEL NUPTIALS QUIET

MR. AND MRS. PAUL HAVENS, WHO WERE WEDDED YESTERDAY AT THE HOTEL OAKLAND.—Bushnell Photos.

Miss Rosalind Fairweather Becomes Bride of Paul Havens at Sunday Ceremony

Simple but beautiful in its details was the wedding of Miss Rosalind Fairweather and Paul Havens at the Hotel Oakland at noon yesterday. Only the immediate members of the two families were present to hear the impressive marriage service read by Rev. John Stuchell of the undenominational church of Piedmont.

The small drawing room where the ceremony took place was decked with clusters of spring blossoms arranged with charming taste by the hands of the bride's mother. The bride had no attendants, but Seyd Havens supported his twin brother as best man.

The costume of the winsome girl who is now Mrs. Paul Havens was a beautiful gown of old blue French broadcloth, made in the latest mode and trimmed with blue and white brocade. Her hat was a charming frame for her pretty, young face, and was a close fitting model of white. A wedding breakfast followed the ceremony, after which young Havens and his bride left for an automobile tour to the southern part of the State. They will live in Piedmont upon their return, where the groom has added a large wing to the bungalow upon his handsome estate in the hills to fit it for a permanent home for himself and his bride. Mrs. Havens will be much feted as a bride upon her return, many of the affairs of the later season being in her honor.

Havens is the youngest son of Frank C. Havens, one of the wealthiest men on the coast, and one who has always been identified with the development of Oakland. He is associated with his father in business, and was educated abroad to a large extent.

Mrs. Havens is the youngest daughter of Mrs. Mary Fairweather, and a sister of Miss Una Fairweather, a prominent singer, who has won success abroad. Her family has been noted for cultural and intellectual attainments, and her mother is a favorite in society as well as in literary and club circles.

Among those present at the ceremony yesterday were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Havens, Mr. and Mrs. Wickham Havens, Miss Sallie Havens, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Havens, Seyd Havens and Mrs. Mary Fairweather.

REACHING JURORS WAS DISCUSSED

Attorney Testifies He and Darrow Talked Over Influencing of Verdict.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 10.—John R. Harrington, a Chicago attorney, associated with Clarence S. Darrow in the defense of the McNamara brothers, was called to the witness stand today to testify against the former chief counsel in the latter's second trial for alleegd bribery.

Harrington said that in the latter part of September, 1911, just before the trial of James B. McNamara was begun, he and Darrow, on the latter's porch, had discussed "reaching some jurors in the case."

"Darrow produced what he said was $10,000," Harrington testified, "and said if he could arrange to reach a couple of jurors, James B. McNamara never would be convicted."

Harrington also testified that after the arrest of Bert H. Franklin, a former detective for the McNamara defense, on a charge of having bribed jurors, Darrow had said:

"My God, if Franklin speaks, I am ruined."

HISTORIC HOME OF HOBARTS IS BURNED

Palace of City's Former Social Life, Which Escaped Big Fire Goes.

House Was Untenanted; Had Been Used as Business Establishment.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 10.—The historic Hobart residence at the southwest corner of Van Ness avenue and Washington street, which has seen many gatherings of the smart set and was one of the few palaces of the rich located on that thoroughfare to escape the destructive forces of the fire in 1906, was partially destroyed by fire at 4 o'clock this morning. How the flames started is a mystery as the building was empty, but a blaze was seen on the roof and an alarm turned in from box 657. Two additional alarms summoned a goodly section of the fire department and the flames were confined to the garret and third floor of the structure. It was feared that flying embers might spread the blaze to other buildings, but as there is quite a gap between the houses in this section no other structure was endangered.

After the earthquake the Hobart home was used as a store by a downtown business house and for nearly three years it was the center of buying and selling on the part of the daughters of San Francisco's social elect who had previously danced away many a happy hour under its roof.

LOW SENIORS PUT PENNANT ON HIGH

Friendly Rivalry in Graduating Class Evinced in Flaunting Banners.

School "spirit" was manifested this morning shortly after dawn when a company of the low senior class of the Oakland High school placed their class pennant by the side of the high seniors' banner, which was suspended across Twelfth and Jefferson streets, from the High school building to a structure directly opposite. It has been stated that the lads of the low senior class arose at 4 o'clock this morning and endeavored to destroy the high senior emblem, which contained the inscription, "Wake up Dec. '13."

Thus far no successful effort has been made on the part of the students of the class of June, 1913, to remove the penant of the class of December, 1913, but it is believed that before the lapse of many days the low senior flag will be buried.

Up to noon today no official edict from C. E. Keyes, principal of the Oakland High school, had been received, but it has been intimated that he will request that the low senior class provide for the abandonment of their pennant. The high seniors will be permitted to allow their banner to remain intact, it is believed.

PRESCOTT GAINS DIVORCE DECREE

Sensational Shooting and Trial Recalled by Separation Granted.

Harry Prescott, whose trial and subsequent acquittal for the murder of Ralph Thompson on February 29 last year created considerable sensation, was granted an interlocutory decree of divorce today by Superior Judge Harris from his wife, Mrs. Kate Prescott. Prescott recited in his complaint the circumstances attending the shooting of young Thompson, and statements of his wife in which she said that she did not care for him any longer.

Prescott returned to his home in Adeline street late one night and was there when his wife, accompanied by Thompson, entered. Prescott rushed in upon them and shot Thompson through the heart. He died without a statement to the police, who arrived on the scene shortly after.

Prescott pleaded not guilty when his case came to trial before Superior Judge Ellsworth and was acquitted after nearly a week's time. Mrs. Prescott refused to take the stand and testify in behalf of her husband or against him. Suit was commenced some time ago with the result of the divorce decree today.

WHEN 'MA' IS AWAY CUPID WILL PLAY

Reno Lassie Weds Oaklander When Mother Goes to San Diego.

A hasty marriage, while the mother of the bride was visiting friends in the south, marked Cupid's triumph again over parental objection, when Miss Mildred Carpenter, late of Reno, became the bride of A. C. Williams, an automobile man of this city. The wedding took place Saturday evening, Rev. G. W. White officiating. The couple waited until Mrs. Carpenter, who was opposed to the marriage, took a trip to San Diego.

The wedding is the culmination of a five years' romance, and was a successful coup over Williams' mother-in-law. Five years ago he met Miss Carpenter when in the automobile business in Reno, but his suit was frowned upon by the girl's mother. Later he came to Oakland, but secretly corresponded with his sweetheart. A short time ago Mrs. Carpenter and her daughter came to San Francisco, and the mother decided to spend a week with friends in San Diego. Williams saw his chance, made a hurried trip across the bay, and the wedding followed. They returned to Oakland, registering at the Hotel Crellin, and soon selected a home at 125 Eighth street, where they are now domiciled. Mrs. Carpenter, it is understood, had been led to believe that Williams had gone east before deciding to make the trip south. After the marriage the couple sent a telegram to the mother, and forgiveness followed.

CITY CHEMIST OF ALAMEDA IS DEAD

A. A. Cunningham Passes Away at Home After Illness of Over Six Months.

ALAMEDA, Feb. 10.—A. A. Cunningham, city chemist of Alameda, died yesterday at his home, 2826 Central avenue. Death followed an illness of about six months. For several weeks it was known that his condition was grave and that there was but slight chance for recovery.

Cunningham was a native of Scotland and a graduate of Edinburgh University. He was well known as a chemist in the different bay cities, having made his home in Alameda for fifteen years. He is survived by a wife and four children. The children are Gordon K., Kennth E., Margaret C. and J. Kaxton Cunningham. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon, the services being conducted by Dr. F. S. Brush.

Cunningham served a number of years as city chemist of Alameda, holding two appointments as chemist. He was the center of a stormy mixup in the board of health which caused numerous resignations and changes. After his first appointment the health board members became divided over his retention. Charges that the chemist's milk reports were unduly drastic and biased were made to the board by dairymen and were apparently supported by several members of the board. When the Cunningham opposition on the board gained the ascendency through changes in the personnel of the members Cunningham resigned. The board appointed Miss Jessie Berry of Berkeley to the position. Miss Berry served until further changes in the board brought Cunningham's supporters again in control, when he was reappointed city chemist, holding the position until he died. At the time of his last appointment, Dr. H. A. Miller and Dr. J. A. Ellis resigned in a somewhat dramatic manner, quitting the board immediately upon learning that Cunningham was to be again appointed.

Cunningham was again in the center of a lively rampus when an Alameda certified milk user claimed that the certified milk supplied his family was not good milk. Cunningham's analysis differed from that of the University of California's chemist. Several public meetings were held and a determined effort was made by the Cunningham opposition to force his giving up the place, but the board majority supported the city chemist's findings. Owing to flaws in the laws governing the taking of samples the matter of prosecutions was dropped without the question being finally settled.

PROPOSE LEASE TO OPEN STREET CAR LINE

One Block is Obstacle to Running Cars Past City Hall.

The construction of a block of street railroad, which may be leased to the Oakland Traction Company, is contemplated by the city council to solve the difficulty which has been met in the effort to have the San Pablo car lines connect and go down Washington street in front of the new City Hall. The suggestion was made by Mayor Frank K. Mott this morning as to whether the project is legally feasible.

As soon as the old City Hall is removed it is plan of merchants, retail stores, members of the Chamber of Commerce and improvement clubs to ask for a change in the route of the San Pablo avenue car lines, to send the cars down Washington street, thus relieving the congestion on Broadway and bettering the service.

Involved in the project is the installation of a double loop system down Broadway and back to Washington on Second and Eighth streets. This would necessitate franchise privileges in Eighth street, Second street and in Washington street on the block between Fourteenth and Fifteenth streets.

Under the present charter provisions, the Oakland Traction Company has signified that it is unwilling to ask for a right-of-way for any change or extension of its lines. The representatives of the company informed the city many months ago that no new applications for franchises would be made after the new charter went into effect.

The matter was taken up recently by the Down Town Improvement Club, and the traction company was asked if an application would be made for the extension of the Washington street right-of-way to San Pablo avenue. The decision reached some time ago was unchanged, and the officials expressed their unwillingness to submit to the provisions of the charter as it now stands.

LEASE IS PROPOSED.

The merchants then proposed that the city should give the traction company a revocable lease to lay and operate tracks in this block. City Attorney Ben F. Woolner rendered an opinion that this would be impossible, as the grant of such a privilege was not contemplated by the city charter.

It is the purpose of the present city administration to introduce charter amendments, and the franchise provisions will probably be changed. But this cannot be done for at least two years, and in the meanwhile the problem of the privilege in Washington street remains unsolved.

To avoid the onerous conditions of the franchise section of the charter, Mayor Mott suggested today that the city might construct this block of railroad and then lease it to the highest bidder. As that bidder would undoubtedly be the traction company, this would solve the difficulty. The price of the lease, which might run two or ten years, would be made high enough to make a return to the city on the investment.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC ASKS REHEARING OF CASE

Opens Ferry Boat Rate Case Before Railroad Commission by Petition.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 10.—The Southern Pacific Railway made application before the State Railroad Commission this morning for a rehearing of the evidence in connection with their application to raise the passenger rate on the Oakland Harbor Ferry, familiarly known as the Creek Route, from five to ten cents. A month ago the commission unanimously refused to grant the proposed doubling of the rates setting forth that five cents had been the amount charged for nearly a score of years and that hardship would be worked upon people living in a section of Oakland adjacent to the foot of Broadway were the increase to be made. The commission also held that 5 cents is a sufficient sum for the boat ride which was short in comparison to the boat and train ride given for a 10-cent fare on the regular suburban lines of the company.

Today the Southern Pacific in their petition for a rehearing, which covers five pages, rehearsed this evidence given at the previous hearing and make their principal point of the danger to travelers in riding on a boat containing more than the automobiles. It is set forth that a raise in the passenger rate on this line would very promptly divert all of the traffic of pedestrians to either of the suburban lines operating from Oakland or Alameda moles.

FRIENDS CARE FOR GRIEVING WOMAN

Fashionably-Gowned Pair Remove Mrs. L. D. Snyder From Richmond Home.

RICHMOND, Feb. 10.—Unknown friends who knew Mrs. L. D. Snyder in her halcyon days as the young and beautiful Laura Fair have taken her away, following the announcement in the press that she was in penury and hysterical over the death of her daughter, Lillian Lorraine Hollis, in New York.

Late Saturday night two fashionably gowned and heavily veiled women arrived at the Fair home and took the despondent woman away with them. It could not be discovered where they had gone but it is thought that they are San Francisco residents.

Mrs. Fair has been living in a single room in the basement of an humble house on Eleventh street, Richmond. She eked out a precarious existence by taking care of children when their parents went to the theater or took trips for the day. For a time, too, she ran the Woman's Exchange in Richmond.

MAX GUNDLACH, SR., DIES AT BAKERSFIELD

ALAMEDA, Feb. 10. — Max Gundlach Sr., grandfather of the late Miss Hazel Gundlach, died yesterday at his home in Bakersfield. The body is to be brought here for cremation at the California crematory, where final services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Gundlach was 82 years of age and a native of Germany. Despite his advanced years he was hale and hearty until his beloved grandchild, Hazel Gundlach, was killed in an auto accident near Bakersfield a few months ago. He grieved night and day over the tragedy and failed rapidly, apparently having no desire to make a fight for further life.

The death of Gundlach is the fifth death in the Wulzen family in two years. The other four persons to die were A. Strunz, H. H. Devine, Mrs. J. F. Wulzen and Miss Hazel Gundlach. A sixth member of the family, Richard Wulzen, lies between life and death at the Alameda sanatorium from a fractured skull sustained through being run down by an automobile in San Francisco last Thursday evening. His condition today was reported as critical. Wulzen was in failing health at the time of the accident and his condition is a serious factor weighing against his chances of recovery.

ALAMEDAN TO GET COMMISSION AS LIEUTENANT

NORMAN C. BATES.

ALAMEDA, Feb. 10.—Friends of Norman C. Bates of this city are keenly interested in news from Washington that the young Alamedan is to receive a commission as second lieutenant in the marine corps. Bates is one of three California young men to successfully pass the examination and to be eligible for appointment. There were twenty applicants for the appointments.

Bates is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. A. Bates of 727 Paru street. He attended the Alameda high school, later graduating from Hitchcock Military Academy. He also studied two years at the University of California. He has taken successfully all the required mental and physical examinations. As yet the young man has not received official notification that he is slated for appointment. This notification will probably come through official channels by mail.

MAYOR WILSON IS AGAIN NOMINATED

Other Candidates for Berkeley Municipal Election Chosen by Socialists.

BERKELEY, Feb. 10.—Socialists of this city, at a convention held at Finnish Comrades' hall, West Berkeley, yesterday, named Mayor J. Stitt Wilson as a candidate for re-election at the municipal election to be held in April. The nomination was unanimous, objections which were raised, being overruled.

The Socialists also nominated two candidates for councilmen, Frederick Postnikoff and William McIndoo. John Eddy was honored with a nomination for auditor and Vincent Surr, Mrs. Elvina S. Beals and Rev. Philo Fuller Phelps were chosen for school directors. All are well known here, Mrs. Beals having been nominated before.

F. G. Shallenberger, chairman of the city central committee, called the convention to order at 10:30 a. m. Sessions were held continuously until late in the afternoon, the discussion of resolutions and modifications in the platform of the party being the principal matters of business.

WANTS WILSON DEPOSED.

Declaring that the Socialists of Berkeley, with the possible exception of those in the East Berkeley branch, were all unwilling to have Mayor Wilson re-elected, C. J. Staley, chairman and secretary of the West Berkeley committee, made a strong plea to have Wilson deposed. His motion failed, the vote which followed showing the other branches unanimous in favor of the mayor. Staley stated later that it was a slated program that Wilson should be renominated. He claims that it was a plot prepared by the East Side Socialists.

The political situation now assumes a new light here, inasmuch as it is now known that Mayor Wilson will be a candidate. Commissioners Christian Hoff and E. B. Norton must leave office this year, unless they fight for re-election, both of their terms ending at this time. Three positions are to be filled on the school board, the places now held by Frank Heywood and Herbert Briggs becoming vacant this year. The resignation of Mrs. Carlisle, whose term would have expired any way, leaves a third place to fill. Neither Heywood nor Briggs, both appointees, have stated whether they intend to try for election to the board.

SANTA FE R. R. WILL BUILD IN RICHMOND

Extension of Terminal Facilities Planned, Says Assistant General Agent.

RICHMOND, Feb. 10. — "We would listen to a proposition to lease a little of the land the company owns at Richmond, for manufacturing purposes, but we are going to use nearly all of it for the extension of our Richmond terminal facilities contemplated for the next two years. We will have to build more and larger shops, for one thing, but there is land enough adjacent to the present shops for that purpose.

"Much of the additional lands are to be utilized for roundhouse extension, more trackage and other contemplated improvements."—John J. Byrne, assistant general freight and passenger agent, Santa Fe railroad.

The above statement on the part of Byrne shows that manufacturing interests are continually after the vacant land here, owned by the Santa Fe and also that the big railroad company proposes to make extensive improvements in Richmond in the immediate future, both as to trackage facilities, more roundhouses and more shops.

It is a well known fact, also, that the company is to build a new and modern mission style depot here, the only hitch being its location, the officials not having made up their minds yet as to whether they will build it at the intersection of Macdonald and Ashland avenues or at Ohio street and Ashland avenue. This will be determined at an early date this spring, according to the officials of the road.

NEW CLUE FOUND IN MURDER CASE

Strangers Near Scene of Crime Described by the Witnesses.

RICHMOND, Feb. 10. — A clew to the unraveling of the Blanchard murder mystery, that has been occuping the attention of the police today, was the word that two persons, believed to have been Italians, were seen going toward the spot where the unfortunate game warden met his death.

The rough description given fitted that given by H. N. Snively of Oakland and V. R. Boos of San Francisco. A woman has also told the authorities that she saw these men at about the time mentioned, walking toward Stege Junction. They were dressed in hunting clothes and carried a gun. Sheriff Veale of Contra Costa county and Chief of Police Arnold have made up their minds to discover the identity of the pair.

Three Game Schedule to be Adhered to by Collegians.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Feb. 10.—At this morning's meeting of the Associated students of the University of California it was the almost unanimous vote of that body to retain the present schedule of three baseball games between California and Stanford. It was proposed at a recent meeting of the inter-collegiate committee to make the baseball series five instead of three games as heretofore, but the recommendation of this committee was voted down today and the three-game schedule will be retained.

President Cleve M. Torrey of the associated students set forth the reasons for the withdrawal of the University of California from the California Rugby Union, and a resolution was adopted supporting this action by the Berkeley athletic leaders.

VISITS GIRL AND RECEIVES BEATING

Arrest on Charge of Disturbing Peace Follows Fracas.

ALAMEDA, Feb. 10. — N. Jacobson of 1821 Minturn street, was arrested last night by Policemen McDonnell and Blunk and charged at the police station with disturbing the peace. Jacobson is said to have entered into combat with another man, whose name he did not give, at 11:50 o'clock. He stated that the other man was paying attentions to his stepdaughter and that he had warned him several times to keep away. On returning last night, he declares, he found the man again at the house, and the fight followed. Report was made to the police by neighbors, who were alarmed at the fracas, and the patrol wagon was sent out. The visitor had departed when the policemen arrived. Police Judge Tappan released Jacobson on his own recognizance.

W. J. Kelly of 1080 Park avenue reported that while passing the premises at 1524 Pacific avenue at 7:30 o'clock last night, a large dog sprang at him and grasped him by the leg. He was not severely injured. The police have notified the owner to keep the dog confined.

Mrs. Cox of 1520 Central avenue reported that an attempt was made to rob her home. She says that she was startled by hearing someone trying to work the lock of her front door, and later heard footsteps on the porch. Policemen Schroeder and Traspern were detailed to investigate.

T. H. Dove of 1233 Broadway reported that his son, Wayne Dove, 13 years of age, has left home and for several days has not been seen. Dove reported that the boy was dressed in a black and white shirt, dark corduroy trousers, black button shoes and a light cap. He wore no coat.

SCHOOL CHILDREN MARCH IN PARADE

Novel Feature Part of Crusade Against the Saloons.

ALBANY, Feb. 10. — Albany Sunday school children marched through the streets of this town yesterday singing "Saloons Must Go," and appealing to their friends to vote for no-license on St. Valentine's, the 14th of this month. The youngest children, members of the beginners' classes, were taken along the line of the parade by J. H. Robins of Berkeley, in his automobile.

Special demonstrations were made at the Methodist chapel on Marin avenue, where the parade started and at the Baptist chapel in the northern end of the town. Brief addresses were made by Robins and by a representative of the Berkeley W. C. T. U. Luncheon was served by the teachers before the line of march was formed.

In the evening a union no-license service was held at the Marin avenue chapel at which addresses were made by the pastors of the two Albany congregations and by Mrs. MacKenzie of Seattle, superintendent of the Welfare league.

Announcement was made yesterday that Mayor Wilson of Berkeley will speak on the no-license issue at the Albany school house tomorrow evening. A meeting of members of the local no-license league will be held tonight.

Two Great Cards in Sight for Local Fans

Matchmaker Jimmy Rohan of the Oakland Wheelmen's club, as intimated several days ago by the Timekeeper, has two great cards in sight for the local fans. Tonight Rohan and Bob McAllister, the Pacific coast middleweight champion of the Olympic club, are to meet at 6 o'clock in San Francisco and discuss further the proposition whereby the crack amateur may turn professional and make his debut in Oakland in a ten-round match next month.

Ad Wolgast has notified Rohan that he would fight before the Wheelmen in a six-round go for a guarantee of $2500, Rohan having offered $1500. It is probable that a compromise sum will be reached and that Wolgast, if he gets by Murphy, will meet some likely local lightweight for six rounds in this city.

CHURCH BOWLERS TO PLAY THREE GAMES THIS WEEK

THE GAME MAY BE DYING, BUT IT'S A GREAT FINISH

Just Glance Over the Pugilistic Calendar for the Next Few Weeks

By THE TIMEKEEPER

If it is true that the sport of pugilism is on its last legs, it is certainly putting up a garrison finish. Looking over the pugilistic calendar for the next three weeks, there does not seem to be hardly a day that will not be of some interest to the fistic gentry.

Ad Wolgast is expected either tonight or tomorrow from Portland and he will at once begin training at the Cliff House, where he has always prepared for his local battles. Harlem Tommy Murphy came in last night from Chicago and was be met by his manager, Jim Buckley, and taken over to Billy Shannon's San Rafael camp, where "Gunboat" Smith is already in training. Wednesday afternoon all eyes will be trained on Los Angeles, where Eddie Campi of San Francisco and Kid Williams of Baltimore will battle twenty rounds. Campi is a ten-to-eight favorite in the betting, but in the judgment of the writer will have to win by a knockout before the tenth round in order to win at all.

Next Friday night the Royal Club has its four-round card at Pavilion Rink in San Francisco, and the following Friday night Louis Parente shows.

Meanwhile a bout of more than ordinary interest will take place in New York on Friday evening, when George Kirkwood, the St. Louis featherweight, will meet Champion Johnnie Kilbane.

Red Letter Day

Of course the great red letter day will be February 22, when Ad Wolgast and Harlem Tommy Murphy meet at Daly City for a twenty-round matinee, and Knockout Brown and Joe Rivers meet at Vernon for a similar performance. These bouts are of national interest, as they will eliminate two fighters, probably, from the ranks of those entitled to a chance at Champion Willie Ritchie.

The last evening of the month will see Promoter Jim Griffin's card, a twenty-round battle between "Gunboat" Smith and Jack Lester, the Australian heavyweight, who is picked by Tommy Burns as one of the most promising men in the business. Lester has begun training at Colma.

Next Friday's Card

The Royal Club has completed its boxing card which will be staged at Pavilion Rink on Friday night. In addition to the Tommy McFarland-Herb White bout, there will be eight other four-round bouts, as follows: Porky Flynn vs. Charley Horn; Joe Herrick vs. Tom Nickola; Jack Fitzgerald vs. K. Brown; Bubbles Robinson vs. Kid Morrisey; Pete Blake vs. Jack Robinson; Kid Romeo vs. Kid Bertelsen, and Hughie Fraser vs. F. Snoor.

Wells-McCarty Bout

Private advices from New York would indicate that the proposed Bombardier Wells-Luther McCarty bout in New York city will really materialize sometime in the early part of April. The men will box the limit ten rounds in Madison Square Garden before the Garden Athletic club, Wells getting a guarantee of $6000 for his bit.

McCarty and his manager, William McCarney have been ready to sign articles to box Wells in the Garden ever since the big cowboy whipped Al Palzer in California on New Year's day.

McCarty Changes Mind

While it was announced by McCarty that he would not take part in another 20 round bout until July 4, he notified Manager Gibson that ten rounds with Bombardier Wells in the meantime would be to his liking. For that reason Gibson probably cabled to the British title holder to accept the Garden A. C.'s terms, and Wells is now in New York.

McCarty is recognized as the white champion of America, and his manager, for that matter, calls him the white champion of the world, because Palzer knocked Wells out in three rounds last summer.

The Wells-McCarty bout, therefore, will be a world's title affair, and in the opinion of ring followers it will prove one of the most interesting events in pugilistic annals. Wells openly states that he is anxious to whip McCarty because a victory will clinch the proposed fight with Jack Johnson in France.

Wells in recent issues of English sporting papers is quoted as saying that he expects to fight Johnson on Grand Prix night, June 24, in the Wonderland club, Paris, and that there is no truth in the report that Johnson will meet Jeannette or Palzer on that occasion.

Wells Over 200 Pounds

Wells weighs over 200 pounds now, and British sporting authorities already hail him as the coming champion of the world. Wells has explained that he was in poor health. In that he had fallen off to 188 pounds, when he fought Palzer in the Garden last summer. He insists that if he had been in possession of all his strength on that occasion he would have stopped Palzer in the first round.

The fact that McCarty could not put an end to Palzer's aspirations until the middle of the 18th round at Vernon has convinced Wells that he can whip the cowboy decisively in a 10-round bout. That is why the British champion, according to the latest cable information, is coming to try conclusions with the conqueror of Palzer, Flynn, Morris and Kaufman.

Wells has refused to consider a match with Willard. He is quoted as saying that Willard would have no chance with McCarty in the latter's present form and that McCarty today is the best drawing card in America.

This Week's Program

Here are the boxing bouts scheduled for the week:

Monday—Freddie Welsh vs. Charles Le Grand, 20 rounds at Aberdeen, Wales; Grover Hayes vs. Young Sailor, 10 rounds, at Cincinnati; Young Mike Donovan vs. Jack McCarron, 10 rounds, at New York; Jimmy Coffey vs. Teddy Maloney, 10 rounds, at New York; Andy Bezenah vs. Steve Katchel, 10 rounds, at Cincinnati; Joe Jeanette vs. Jack Reid, six rounds, at Hazelton, Pa.; Billy Wagner vs. Johnny Clover, six rounds, at Wilkesbarre, Pa.; Danny Goodman vs. Joe Meyers, 20 rounds, at Springfield, O.; Jack Britton vs. Freddie Duffy, 10 rounds at Buffalo; Jack Dennings vs. Tommy Connors, 10 rounds, at New York; Charley White vs. Pal Moore, 10 rounds, at Kenosha, Wis.

Henry Miller, not the celebrated matinee idol, but the famous side line enthusiast, was holding one of the yard sticks yesterday afternoon at the Originals-Maryland game. Right after Steinbach spilled a sailor on his ear, Miller turned to the bleachers and yelled gleefully: "The bigger they are the harder they fall." About 10 seconds later, Tony Blanco swept around right end and about 10 football players hit the enthusiastic Miller at the same time. Miller promptly stood on his head and twinkled all his toes in the direction of the sky, while the crowd applauded his agility.

HARRY WOLVERTON IS HERE GREETING FRIENDS

Harry Wolverton is still in town today rejoicing in the acclaim of hundreds of admirers. He chatted this morning with Senator Leavitt and then crossed the bay to see President Baum and J. Cal Ewing. Wolverton said he was in a receptive mood if anyone wanted to talk trade, but he said he had no propositions to make himself. Gilligan may be traded by Wolverton in favor of a good infielder.

MOVING BACK COACHERS WOULD NOT QUICKEN GAMES

Efforts to Hide Signals No Worse Than Steadying Young Pitcher

By BILLY FITZ.

Baseball players and sporting scribes do not seem to warm up very much to the suggestion advanced in the east that the coaching lines be moved back 10 feet so that the catcher's signals could not be detected, the object being to avoid the delays consequent upon the efforts of a backstop to communicate with the pitcher in such a way as to fool the prying eyes of the opposition.

Most baseball writers seem to think that moving back the coaching lines is not necessary at all, but that it might be well for battery men to devise more simple and quicker means of signalling. On the other hand, in these days of great importance in the pitching box, the catcher is very frequently compelled to stall a bit in an effort to steady the nerves of the young pitcher whom he sees is inclined to work too fast.

A well-known backstop has this to say about the shifting of the coacher's box with regard to increasing the speed of the batterymen and "such":

"In my opinion, the slowness or quickness of the average backstop in winging his signals to the pitcher is not in any way affected by the man who happens to be coaching at first base. For one thing, a catcher who knows his trade has no trouble whatever in concealing his signs from a coacher who is forced to stay within his boundaries.

"As a matter of fact, the wise catcher of today doesn't hand out his signals from a screened point of vantage between his legs, as is the common impression, but resorts to some simple maneuver after fussing around with bluff moves by fingers the greater portion of the time consumed.

IT'S ALL A BLUFF, ANYWAY.

"It is ten to one that when the windpad man is crouching down and casting his eyes toward the coaching box and exhibiting symptoms of distress lest the man on the sidelines has observed his manipulation of his fingers, he is not telegraphing the sort of ball he wishes at all. The pitcher man shakes his head and then after the man behind the log has straightened up apparently ready to receive the delivery some simple movement of his hand or glove will comprise the real sign.

"Hence this masking of the signs will take just as long whether the box is moved back or not. There isn't a chance in the world of a coacher getting a flash at what takes place when the catcher is squatting, providing he keeps the leg on the exposed side tilted at any angle at all.

"The only man who has a chance to lamp a finger signal is a runner on the second sack, and few backstops use this sort of flashing when men are on base. So it is just as easy to get a real catcher's work from the bench as on the first base lines.

"The up-to-date shock-absorber uses but three signs, one for a fast ball, one for a curve, and another for a pitch-out, or 'waste' ball. His throws to the sacks are usually regulated by the man who takes the peg.

"Much of the evident deliberateness of a wise catcher is caused by his desire to work the pitcher slowly for best results. Many fingers lose their effectiveness if they are permitted to work rapidly."

FORKER IS PROFESSIONAL; U. C. LOSES STAR TWIRLER

BERKELEY, Cal., Feb. 10.—Branded as a "professional" because he played ball last summer with the Bakersfield team, William ("Bill") Forker, star pitcher of the University of California nine, has been notified by the executive committee in charge of athletics that he will not be eligible to play in the intercollegiate series with Stanford this spring.

For three years past Forker has been the mainstay of the Blue and Gold pitching staff.

California took the initiative in Forker's case, as he had not been protested by Stanford. It is openly asserted, however, that the Stanford authorities are expected to drop two of the veteran cardinal players from their list of eligibles, or have them protected by California on the eve of the series. The two men are said to have played professional ball in the Humboldt league.

HAWXHURST, WINNER OF THE INDOOR SHOOT

Running up a total of 2440 points, L. W. Hawxhurst, shooting prince of the Shell Mound Rifle and Pistol Club, easily won the indoor championship of the Pacific Coast yesterday in the competition at the Shell Mound Range. Hawxhurst's score may be bettered when the targets are officially examined.

Hawxhurst made his score in the 100-shot match, shooting against the record of 2484 held by Ad Hubiek of New York. M. W. Housner made the second high score, his mark being 2417. R. T. McKisick of Sacramento scored 2346. Ben Jonas had the best bullseye at a late hour last night, but the measurements will not be completed until this afternoon.

SAILORS TRY HARD, BUT ARE COMPLETELY OUTCLASSED

Tony Blanco and "Ming" Bruzzone Furnish Thrills With Long End Runs.

Outplaying their opponents at every stage of the game, the Oakland Originals, by defeating the Maryland eleven at Grove street park yesterday 27-0 are today the undisputed champions of Northern California at the American game of football. The sailors fought pluckily and kept trying right up to the last whistle, but the defense put up by the Originals was impenetrable, while the back field of the Oakland team was too aggressive and fast for the heavier Marylands.

Thousands of dollars changed hands as a result of the game, for the tars and their Vallejo supporters brought bags of shining double eagles to the grounds and every penny was covered by Oaklanders. Several thousand people attended and the naval band added to the enthusiasm.

"We have no excuses to offer," said Ensign Hill in behalf of the naval team, "we did our best, but were outclassed."

There were four bright particular stars amongst the winners: Incell, who played at full, Half-backs "Ming" Bruzzone and Tony Blanco, and Captain Steinbach at right guard. These four men were in every play and they electrified the crowd with hair-raising offensive work. The change of Hunter from full-back to end, and the substitution of Tony Blanco, the Vallejo wonder at half-back, with Incell at full, seemed to strengthen the Originals wonderfully.

BLANCO IS SLIPPERY.

Blanco raced around the end time after time, squirming and plunging through the sailors like a runaway eel.

The Originals began their scoring in the first quarter, when "Ming" Bruzzone secured the ball on a fumble with a clear field ahead of him. Chased by the entire pack, "Ming" sprinted for sixty yards to a touch-down, Incell kicking the goal. In the second quarter, after the ball had see-sawed back and forth and the Originals had been penalized several times for holding and off-side plays, the Oakland boys managed to work the ball into the opposition territory far enough for an attempted place kick, which Incell failed to score. The Original full-back, however, made up for his slip a little while later, when the opportunity came again. This time the try from the 30-yard line was successful, leaving the score 10 to 0.

In the second half the sailors tried desperately to even up matters by using the forward pass which brought them victory at Vallejo the week before. The local players, however, seemed to have secured a perfect defense for the play, as the attempt was made twelve times and blocked each time. Tony Blanco was sent around right end for ten and twenty-yard gains repeatedly and Bruzzone alternated with equal success, the plunging being left to Incell, who always found a hole made for him by Steinbach. The Originals plunged through the line until the ball was ten feet from the sailors' line, when Incell was shoved over on a guard play. Incell kicked an easy goal.

RUNS BALL IN SIXTY YARDS.

On the kickoff Blanco set the crowd wild by running the ball in for sixty yards, shaking off a dozen husky sailors as though they were kittens. Incell kicked a goal from the twenty-five yard line, leaving the score 20 to 0.

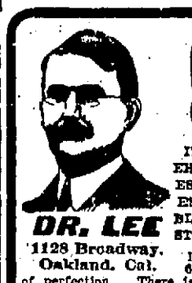

Hunter, Bruzzone and Incell were all out of the game for several minutes, but they managed to recover and re-enter the line-up.

Having successfully blocked the sailors' attempt at the forward pass, the play was beautifully worked by Quarter-back Moir, "Ming" Bruzzone and Captain Steinbach, the latter catching the throw on the thirty-yard line in the last quarter, and shaking himself free of everyone for a run to touch-down. The final whistle found the ball in the center of the field.

Ensign Hill saved many a score for his team by wonderful punting and seemed to have the better of the argument with Incell in this respect.

Collier gained most ground for the sailors with a fake play, but Steinbach made all line plunges hopeless for the sailors. This big blonde seems to be able to stop a locomotive. Pete Smith was a capable referee.

ELIMINATE EXPENSE OF SALARIES FOR COPYISTS

Supervisors, on Recommendation of Chairman, Drop Employes

All county expense for employing copyists was wiped out by the Board of Supervisors when Fannie E. Broadwater and E. E. Hobbs, copyists, and F. Petersen, repairer of old records, were dropped from the county employ this morning. The copyists employed several years ago cost the county $12,000 annually. Chairman John F. Mullins, after studying the system, cut this to $3000, and by recommending today's action abolished the old system entirely.

The work of copying records, in most cases the duty of attaches of the county clerk's office, will be contracted for on the folio basis, should work be too heavy for the office.

Today's action is the result of several years of study on the part of Chairman Mullins, who saw a large leak in the old method.

"We find," he said, "that the actual work done by copyists has been in many instances the duty of deputies in the county clerk's office. In the future it will be contracted for on the folio plan as necessary.

"Thus we will pay for actual work performed. This system will cut down the expense to the proper figure."

The copyists were employed in reproducing court and county records.

NO MORE LIGHTS.

The county is to shut down on lights for country districts, according to statements made at the meeting of the Board of Supervisors this morning by Supervisor T. B. Bridge and D. L. Murphy, who declared that, after a few granted at today's meeting no more will be recommended.

"It is time to call a halt," declared Bridge. "The country roads are now almost as well lighted as the city, and it costs money. I have notified my district that I will favor no more electric installations."

This same stand was taken by Murphy, who has served similar notice. The county now is maintaining several hundred lights.

Lights, the last to be installed, this morning were granted Centerville, Russell, Newark and the Redwood road districts.

"It is a matter of economy," said Murphy. "If we had the money we would light all the roads."

These lights are mostly in thickly settled districts, along main roads.

ROAD REPORTS MADE.

M. V. Perry, road foreman of Irvington, reported on work in his district. Reports were also received from Alvarado, Altamont, Centerville and other districts.

CLAIMS ARE FILED.

Claims against the Locke Construction Company, awarded a contract to erect the Niles bridge, and which was forced to turn the work over to its bondsmen, were filed by Robert and P. A. Ellis, Niles Hardware Company, F. Rose & Sons and John Parry for small bills. The contract involved $60,000, and on the failure of the company to complete the work the United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company, through arrangement with the county, took over the work, which is being completed by day labor.

CORRECTIONS MADE.

Correction of an assessment levied on George S. Montgomery and William Mann, and an asessment against J. Everding, in which clerical errors existed, was ordered made.

LICENSE GRANTED.

A liquor license was granted to Michael Dever of Alvarado. P. Quartaroli, Niles, also applied for a license.

The application of W. E. Connors of Niles for a license was laid over for one week.

CHANGE DISTRICT.

A petition to change the boundary lines of the Eureka, Hayward and San Lorenzo school districts, made by Superintendent G. W. Frick, was received.

"Citizens asked me to do this," said Frick. "It is for convenience in the country districts."

The matter was referred to the district attorney to pass on the legality of the proposition. There was no protest.

On the attorney's favorable report the petition was granted.

CROLL IS NAMED.

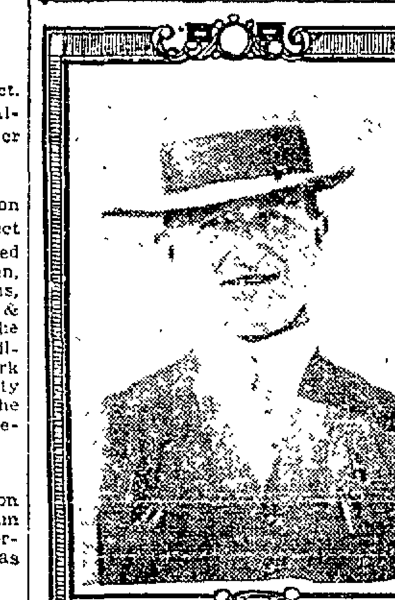

Clarence Croll was named unanimously as Alameda county library trustee for this year.

E. Mills was named cart driver at the county infirmary.

M. Bridge was appointed assistant to the county expert at a monthly salary of $100. The salary of M. Burke, superintendent of nurses at the county infirmary, was fixed at $25 per month.

All committees of the board will meet Friday afternoon for routine business.

STONEHURST CLUB IMPROVERS PLAN IMPORTANT WORK

E. ROBINSON.

SAN LEANDRO, Feb. 10.—Although it has been in existence for only two weeks, the Stonehurst Improvement Club has already effected several much needed improvements in this district. Through the efforts of the club, lights are now being installed along One Hundred and Sixth avenue, and it is planned to improve the roadway on this avenue.

The second meeting of the Stonehurst Club is to be held tonight, when a number of projects for the welfare of the district will be discussed. E. Robinson, who has been elected president of the new club, will preside. Robinson, along with Judge D. U. Toffelheimer and others, decided to form the club in order that rapidly growing Stonehurst should be brought into line with other places of its size. Under President Robinson's progressive leadership, the club will be a force for good.

MUNICIPAL WATER DISTRICT WIDELY ENDORSED

Petitions Favoring Metropolitan Plan for Three Cities Are Signed.

The petitions for the proposed metropolitan municipal water district will be presented to the board of supervisors of Alameda county Monday morning, March 3. This date was fixed upon this morning by Mayor Frank K. Mott of Oakland and Mayor J. Stitt Wilson of Berkeley, after a conference at which it was determined that sufficient signatures had been obtained in the seven incorporated cities to make the calling of a water district election mandatory.

The petition will be presented by a committee consisting of Mayors Mott and Wilson and Mayor Hugh Craig of Piedmont, the committee representing the mayors of the seven municipalities. The other mayors will also be present on invitation and will urge the calling of the election.

There has been some delay in obtaining the signatures, as it has been necessary to do all the work without incurring expense. No funds have been provided for the work preliminary to the filing of the petition, and all the work of circulating the petitions has been done gratuitously by public spirited citizens. It was necessary to verify these signatures, and this has been done by Al Wilkinson, secretary to Mayor Mott, and several attaches of the city in their spare moments.

The law provides that the petition must be printed for two weeks with the names of five of the signers and the number of signatures prior to be presented to the board of supervisors. The petition will be sent to print this week.

Following the filing of the petitions March 3, the county clerk is given ten days in which to verify the signatures, and upon his making a return to the supervisors that the petition is sufficient, the election to create the district can be held within five weeks.

The election will probably be held in April or May.

The Metropolitan Municipal Water District, if created, will be perhaps the largest of its kind in the United States in area, and will supply a vast population. The area is close to 200 square miles, and this includes seven incorporated cities and considerable unincorporated territory.

It is proposed to take over a water plant, probably that of the Peoples Water Company, either by direct purchase or by condemnation proceedings under the right of eminent domain. The legislative bill enabling the creation of a water district was advocated and partially drafted by the Oakland municipal supply committee, composed of Ben H. Pendleton, George W. Dornin and W. T. Veitch.

WIFE DETECTS FRIEND PICK HUSBAND'S POCKET

Although Mrs. Axel Svendsen, 711 Thirty-seventh avenue, saw Fred Fritz, a clothes cleaner, reaching toward her husband's pocket last evening, when the two came to the Svendsen home together, she did not think anything about it until Fritz had left the house. Then Svendsen missed his purse containing $27.50, and Mrs. Svendsen remembered the peculiar action on the part of her husband's friend.

Fritz was arrested by Inspectors St. Clair Hodgkins and Thomas Wood today and will be charged with grand larceny. The purse was found in the street near the Svendsen residence, but it was empty.

Svendsen had met Fritz at a saloon at East Tenth street and Fruitvale avenue. They had several drinks together.

HEBREWS TO PLAN FOR IMMIGRATION

Distribution of Arrivals Expected to be Topic of Convention.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 10. — Representative Jews from every city of importance on the Pacific Coast will assemble in San Francisco February 10, and in open convention will discuss ways and means of properly receiving and distributing thousands of their coreligionists, who are expected to flock to western shores on the opening of the Panama Canal.

Those who are familiar with the situation declare this to be by far the most important Jewish assemblage that ever came to San Francisco, since it has been called to cope with the problem uppermost in the minds of American Jewry today.

The purpose of the convention is to arrange for organized effort, to handle the Western Jewish immigration problem, and it is expected that the Jewish communities of every city on the Pacific Slope will unite under one head, and, under joint leadership, to cope with the situation. Every effort will be exerted to distribute the immigrant Jews along the coast, so as to avoid the forcing of colonies similar to the New York "Ghetto," and to assist the newcomers to assimilate American ideas and customs.

GIRLS ATTEMPT TO ROB TELEPHONE

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 10.—Two little girls apparently about 16 years old, and who may have been endeavoring to get money enough to return across the bay, were surprised in the act of rifling a telephone box in the Ferry building at 2:30 o'clock this morning. Mrs. M. Steward, matron in the ladies' parlor of the second floor, was walking through the room when she heard a slight noise in one of the booths. As she threw open the door the two girls brushed past her and knocked her to one side. They then ran down the nave and disappeared. Mrs. Steward found that the top of the coin receiver on the telephone had been smashed off but the contents had not been taken.

Policeman Norman of the Harbor Station was informed of the occurance but a search of the ferry building failed to show any trace of the girls.

WESTENBERG HELD ON HEAVY BOND

J. C. Westenberg, missionary and president of the California Federation for the Suppression of Vice, was arraigned before Judge Mortimer Smith this morning on the charge of criminal libel preferred against him by Chief of Police Walter J. Petersen in connection with statements attributed to Westenberg in the "Public Eye," a journal of which the missionary is editor.

Robert Burns, attorney for the defendant, asked that the case be continued to give his client time to investigate the complaint before entering his plea. The case was continued to Friday to plead. Westenberg is out on bond of $1000.

HARVESTER COMPANY REDUCES ITS CAPITAL

TRENTON, N. J., Feb. 10. — The International Harvester Company filed with the Secretary of State here today a certificate reducing the capital of the company from $140,000,000 to $70,000,000 and changing the name of the corporation to that of the International Harvester Company of New Jersey.

ASSOCIATION TO FIGHT LOAN SHARK

Municipal Bureau to Lend Money to Needy is Urged.

The creation of a remedial loan association to protect working men and clerks and others on small salaries from the "loan sharks" is being planned by a number of business men of Oakland. It was brought to the attention of those interested recently that many employes had fallen into the clutches of loan sharks and were paying as high as 12 per cent a month on loans obtained to meet urgent necessities. The interest was so high that the money was paid back over and over again in a short time and the victim was still in debt to the loan office.

F. N. Parcells, president of the board of library trustees of Oakland, has had the matter under consideration. It is thought that it will be possible to establish a remedial loan office, where money can be obtained by those in need at a reasonable rate of interest. The cases will be investigated on their merits and aid will be given where it is deserved.

It is possible that the matter may be taken up by the city, and that a municipal loan office may be established. In the meanwhile an investigation is to made as to the loan sharks who may exist in Oakland who charge usurous rates of interest.

INCOMPETENCE IS REPORT'S CHARGE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10. — Charges of incompetence and maladministration of the reclamation service are made, and an appropriation of $25,000 is requested for a Congressional inquiry that will deal broadly with reclamation projects, in a report which will be sent to the House by the committe on Interior Department expenditures.

The report recommends during the pendency of the proposed inquiry the "removal from office" of Assistant Secretary of the Interior Samuel Adams, and F. H. Newell and L. C. Hill, director and supervising engineer, respectively, of the reclamation service.

Interior Department officials, including Director Newell, flatly deny the allegations in the printed report, which is unsigned, but which was given out by the committee with the statement that Representative Hensley of Missouri would present it tomorrow. Hensley is chairman of a sub-committee that has been investigating affairs of Indian tribes, whose interests, the Hensley report says, "are outrageously intermingled with the affairs of the reclamation service." Other members of the sub-committee were Representatives Callaway of Texas and Hanna of North Dakota, since becoming Governor.

BARBS WIN EASILY OVER 7 TEAMS AT SOCCER

SOCCER RESULTS.

FIRST ROUND.

Alameda 4 (Gough 2, Smith and Plumtree), Vampires 1 (Linzey).

San Francisco 3 (Adamson, Priest and Mizen), Rangers 0.

Barbarians 5 (Timmis 4, and Scott), Burns 1 (Halley).

Pastimes 4 (Pike 3, and Balmain), Thistles 2 (Roberts and Kempton).

SEMI-FINALS.

Barbarians 2 (Timmis and Dyko), San Francisco 1 (Priest).

Pastimes 1 (Simpson), Alameda 0.

FINAL.

Barbarians 3 (Hudson 2, and Timmis), Pastimes 1 (Walters).

The chief result of yesterday's five-a-side exhibition of soccer, with eight teams participating, was to show that the speedy Barbarians were in a class by themselves when it comes to this line of sport. In the opening round the Barbs beat the Burns by 5 to 1. Next the Barbs took the measure of the San Francisco's 2 to 1 and in the finale the barbs walked away with the Pastimes' 3 to 1. In the semi-finals the Pastimes succeeded in defeating the Alamedas with one goal to none for their opponents. Dyke, Lees, Timmis, Hudson and Scott formed the winning combination. The Williamson cup goes to the Barbs for the second time.

An enormous crowd attended the tournament which was played at Freeman's park. The receipts were turned over to the fund for injured players.

TWENTY-FIVE HOMERS IS LIMIT FOR STAR BATSMAN

Coy Stands Seventh Amongst Sluggers of the Entire Country

But two players in organized baseball succeeded in pounding out 25 home runs last season and both were minor leaguers. Durham of the Bay City club of the Southern Michigan league was the real leader, pounding out 25 circuit wallops while Lejeune of the Grand Rapids Central league club secured the same number of four sackers in 126 games.

Coy of the Oakland club was the leading long distance swatter of the Coast league, standing seventh in the list with 19 homers to his credit, but his average is lower than that of some players below him in the list as he took part in 184 games.

A Chicago player but not Frank Schulte, topped the National league in belting out the clouts that were good for the circuit. He was Heine Zimmerman, who topped the batters in the senior body. Zim rapped out 14 hits that were good for the 300 foot circle.

BIG DROP FOR SCHULTE.

Frank Schulte, the slugging outfielder of the Cubs, took an awful drop in the home run hitting line. The season before Frank topped the league with a record number of four base knocks, but last year it was altogether different. Maybe the pitchers did not serve Schulte the same kind of pitches, or maybe Frank's punch was not there the same as it was in the season foregoing.

Frank Baker, Athletic third sacker who gained much fame for himself in the 1911 world's series when he banged out two home runs that won games for the Athletics, topped the American league with 10, which is not an overly great amount.

The International league was topped by a former major league slugger. He was Tom Jordan, who while with the Superbas was one of the most noted sluggers in the National league. Tom hit 19 home runs in the 155 games he played with the Toronto club in the Barrow organization.

Mann of the Northwestern with 23, Metz of the Texas with 21, and Sullivan of the Central association with a like number were the only players to make more than 20, with the exception of Durham and Lejeune, who already have been mentioned.

The column of heights gives the elevation of each tide above or below the level of Coast Survey chart soundings. The numbers are always additive to the chart depths unless preceded by a minus sign or dash (—), when the numbers are subtracted from the depths given on the chart.

REAL ESTATE REAL ESTATE

Choice Piedmont Properties

A home in Piedmont insures a quiet, dignified and exclusive atmosphere, difficult to gauge in dollars and cents, but a home-place requisite not to be overestimated.

Let us show you these Piedmont lots, all restricted and ready for building:

On Grand Avenue

$2125—50x125; a good residence site for a little more than $40 per foot.

Monticello Avenue Frontage

$1400—40x125; opposite substantial homes and half block from Piedmont ave. cars; this is $35 per foot; at $40 it would be worth the money.

Close to the Key Route

$1800—77-foot frontage on Pleasant Valley avenue; seven minutes' walk to Key Route station, two hundred feet from Piedmont avenue cars; an unusually wide lot and in the center of extensive building activity.

Facing the Piedmont Hills

$1259—46x100, on Greenbank avenue, with unobstructed view of Piedmont and the foothills, other properties on the same street held at and selling for $50 per foot; this is the last lot we own on Greenbank, and it won't last long.

Our salesmen will be glad to show you these and others that we know to be worth the money. Call us up for an auto or drop in at the office.

THE REALTY SYNDICATE
1444 BROADWAY, OAKLAND.
Phone—Oakland 4027.

$94,850

Only $700 a Foot

For the southwest corner of 21st and Broadway. Seven owners hold title to this lot. To divide the joint ownership is the only reason it can be sold. Very few owners on upper Broadway can be induced to sell at any price. $4000 per front foot has just been offered and refused for a corner within three blocks of this one.

Five years from now this corner will be worth almost, if not quite as much as the present value of the property three blocks nearer in.

A temporary building will bring good interest on the investment while you wait for this great increase in price which will come just as sure as Oakland continues to grow.

Think how rapidly the business center has advanced from 10th and Broadway to 12th Street, then to 14th, and is growing rapidly toward 16th and 17th. 18th Street is not cut through so it is only two and one-half blocks from 17th to the southern boundary of this lot.

Apply directly to M. T. Minney, who is one of the owners of this lot and represents the others.

MEXICAN REVOLT STARTS BREAK

Re-Awakening of Bear Activity Featured Today in Wall Street.

NEW YORK, Feb. 10.—Some selling by the leading element was induced in Wall street today by the outbreak of the Mexican revolution, on which more stress was laid as an unfavorable factor than on developments favoring the other side of the market, such as the government's approval of the Harriman dissolution and reports that steps were being taken to reopen the Balkan peace negotiations. Foreign markets were depressed and the lower opening here was credited to a reawakening of bearish activity in the shares most affected by the Mexican revolt. Stocks of railroad and industrial properties operating in Mexico gave way abruptly in spots. Strained relations between the Eastern railroads and their firemen and the depletion of the bank reserves also furnished ammunition for the bears.

Still lower prices were made by the leading issues in the early afternoon. Falling off of 105,000 tons in unfilled orders put Steel down to 64⅛.

Southern Pacific touched 103¾, the lowest since 1910. Inactive shares encouraged a steadily falling market. Goodrich broke 3⅝ and Peoples Gas 2¼, the latter on the unfavorable annual report.

Call money climbed to 4 per cent, the highest in weeks. The advance was foreshadowed by Saturday's unfavorable bank statement and probability of further gold exports. Stocks were little affected and continued inactive and depressed. Union Bag preferred made an exceptional advance of 6 points.

The downward pace quickened in the final hours on more abundant offerings of the standard shares. Bears were encouraged by the stiffness of money, the liquidation of Southern Pacific, which went to the lowest point since 1908, and the unquestioned absence of support for other speculation favorites. Canadian Pacific dropped over 3 points and Reading 2.

The market closed weak.

Bonds were easier.

BRITTON'S FATE IS SOUGHT BY S. P.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 10.—The officials of the Southern Pacific Company telegraphed this morning, asking for a full and complete investigation as to whether William Ward Britton of Berkeley, a traveling inventory clerk, had been drowned in the surf at Redondo Beach yesterday. Britton's headquarters have been at Los Angeles, and his work was to travel from station to station on the company's lines and to take a record of supplies on hand. He was attached to the auditor's staff in this city. Up to noon the officials here have no further information other than the newspaper dispatches.

BRAZIL MAKES TARIFF CUTS

Concessions Made on Several Products From United States.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—Tariff concessions have been made by Brazil on a number of products from the United States as a result of diplomatic representations made by the state depuartment through the American embassy at Rio de Janeiro.

Ambassador Morgan in reporting them says that hydraulic rams, formerly subject to a duty of 90 per cent ad valorem, are to be admitted under the new classification provided for in the 1913 budget just approved by the Brazilian Congress, on payment of 15 per cent duty. Fuel oil, he reports, has been placed on the free list, when it is improted by or for steamship companies, railways or industrial enterprises using steam as motive power.

Reductions were made also on school furniture and on welded fencing, including accompanying posts, for farmers and stockraisers.

For some years Brazil has given preferential tariff rates to certain products from this country, due to the fact that the United States is such an immense buyer of coffee and india rubber.

MORE RAIN FOR PACIFIC STATES

Weekly Weather Bureau Predicts Rise in Temperature for Coast.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—Normal winter temperatures in practically all parts of the country east of the Rocky mountains and temperatures slightly above normal on the Pacific slope, are indicated for the coming week, according to the weekly weather bureau bulletin, issued today

"The precipitation during the week," says the bulletin, "will be generally below normal, except in the Pacific cost states, where rains will be frequent. The next disturbance of importance to cross the country will appear in the far west about Wednesday, cross the Middle West Thursday or Friday and the Eastern States at the end of the week; this disturbance will be preceded by rising temperature and be attended by general snows in northern and rains in southern states. It will be followed by decidedly colder weather, which will make its appearance in the Northwest about Thursday."

KALAMAZOO, Mich., Feb. 10.—Grafting of flesh from a dying man to the body of a living person has been successful in Borgess Hospital. Afterward a victim of a railroad accident was brought in a dying condition to the hospital and 360 square inches of flesh was taken from his legs and grafted to the shoulder of Kulem. Yesterday Kulem walked from the hospital with his arm entirely well.

9 NEGRO WOMEN ESCAPE PRISON

Plan Break and Overpower Guard by Use of Blanket and Revolver.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Feb. 10.—Nine negro women escaped from the woman's reformatory here last night after overpowering H. C. Boyd, the night watchman, and threatening him with his own revolver. The escape, which had been carefully planned, was made when the watchman went to the cellroom to lock up for the night. Four of the women, who had hidden in the corridor, rushed at him and threw a blanket over his head. They took his revolver and keys and hurried to the entrance. Boyd disentangled himself and ran for the door, overpowering the woman who flourished his revolver and slammed the door shut. But nine had escaped.

HIGH COST OF LIVING DROPPING STEADILY

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—The "high cost of living," judging from figures issued today by the Department of Agriculture, apparently is solving itself as the result of lower prices for agricultural products. FOSTER CHILD TO BECOME A VALET

Millionaire Baby to Have Companion; Later Will be Servant.

PALM BEACH, Fla., Feb. 10.—Edward B. McLean, who married Evelyn Walsh, the daughter of Thomas R. Walsh, the couple having a three-year-old son, Vinson, commonly known as "the hundred-million-dollar baby," because it was said that he will inherit that sum, have taken a little negro boy as their fosterling. He is John Winbush Jr., 5 years old, of Washington.

McLean's attorney brought him to Palm Beach yesterday after having prepared papers which the child's parents had signed for a consideration, relinquishing their right over the boy forever. By the contract Mr. and Mrs McLean do not actually adopt the child. He is not to bear their name, or to inherit from them, except as is specified in the contract. He is, however, to be treated as the equal of young Vincent McLean, and furnished with every luxury until he is 18 years old, when he is to become Vinson's valet.)

McLean made this statement concerning the transaction: "I do not want my boy to grow up living the life common to the children of wealthy people. I am getting this boy for my son's playmate because he is a healthy, normal, simple-minded child.

"The companionship of this child will keep my son mindful of the fact that he is one of the people. I don't want a son of mine a snob. The trend of wealth is in that direction. Moreover, my son has been in the company of men, his detectives and nurses, so much that he is becoming precocious."

DISABLED LAUNCH IS FOUND IN BAY

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 10.—With her machinery disabled and the occupants of the craft helpless to aid themselves, the launch Viola R. of Sausalito was picked up by a crew of men from the Fort Point Life Saving Station at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon on orders from Captain J. S. Clark, commanding the station, while the launch was rapidly drifting out to sea.

John W. Henderson, who has a place of business at 491 Golden Gate avenue, this city, is the owner of the launch, and had as his guests during a pleasure trip Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ellis of 1000 Harrison street.

On the return from Sausalito the life saving crew picked up Adolph Sutro's hydro-aeroplane that had landed in the bay and the engine of which had "gone dead," and towed the air craft back to Harbor View.

THOUSANDS SAVED BY CUTTER SERVICE

"Red Cross of Sea" Report Shows Work of Past Year.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—The United States revenue cutter service—the Red Cross of the sea—broke all its previous heroic and humanitarian records during the fiscal year 1912. Thousands of human lives and hundreds of tempest-tossed vessels, valued with their cargoes at nearly $11,000,000, were saved from the perils of storm-swept seas by the little cutters which guard the coast line of the United States in an unbroken line from Maine to Texas and from Alaska to California, nervously alert for the "S. O. S."

The annual report of Captain E. P. Bertholf, commandant of the service, made public today, is a recitation of thrilling adventure of this army of the federal government, older than the American navy. A total of 260 distressed vessels were assisted during the year and their burden of 2212 souls rescued from danger which in many cases seemed impending death. One hundred and six persons were actually saved from drowning.

Revenue cutters on the Pacific coast, penetrating the frigid waters of Alaska, brought back tales of suffering among the natives of the Aleutian islands, in the grasp of poverty and disease, creating conditions, it is declared, demanding the attention and action of the federal government.

Vessels, cargoes and derelicts saved by the revenue cutter service during the year were valued at $10,711,748. Forty-five derelicts and other dangerous obstructions to navigation were removed or destroyed.

MAMMOTH INDUSTRIAL COMBINE ARRANGED

LONDON, Feb. 10.—Meetings are being held in England this week as the result of which it is hoped to announce the formation of the biggest industrial combine this country has ever seen. This will be the amalgamation of the co-operative societies with the trade unions.

The fusion, if accomplished, will bring together 2,750,000 co-operators with 2,250,000 members of organized labor. The capital affected is enormous. To the millions invested by the labor unions must be added the $185,000,000 share capital of the co-operators and their $90,000,000 on loan and reserve, backed up by constantly increasing profits of the turnover. Last year the co-operative trade amounted to $580,000,000.

HERMIT OF CORDELIA FOUND DEAD IN CABIN

VALLEJO, Feb. 10.—Coroner Klotz learned yesterday that John Stearns of Cordelia had been found dead in his lonely cabin, where he had lived for many years. He was a native of Germany and was about 80 years of age. He was an eccentric character and earned a livelihood by peddling fruit and vegetables. About a year ago Stearns was waylaid, robbed and beaten into insensibility near Benicia by highwaymen who escaped

GERMAN EMPEROR WARNS SUBJECTS

Says Prussian Liberation Was "God's Work" and Deplores Modern Skepticism.

BERLIN, Feb. 10.—Declaring that the Prussians were "oppressed and dismembered folk," in 1806, as a consequence of God's judgment, because they had lost faith in Him, the German Emperor at a memorial service at Berlin University delivered yesterday a characteristic speech, warning the present generation of Germans not to forget the faith of their fathers. The Emperor emphasized his words by pounding on the desk.

He asserted that the Germans of today are inclined to believe only in tangible things and to place difficulties in religion's way. They should study history, he said, and see how the Prussians regained their old faith and fought the war of liberation, whose glorious result was not man's work, but God's work.

"So," continued the Emperor, "we have in the history of the past certain proof of God's guidance, and that He was and still is with us. And with this teaching of the past the whole German youth can forge in its fire the tried shield of faith, which must never be lacking in the armory of Germans and Prussians.

"With such weapons, looking neither to the right nor to the left, we will go our direct way, eyes uplifted and hearts uplifted with trust in God. Then we can all repeat the great chancellor's words:

" 'We Germans fear God and nothing else in the world.' "

COLONIAL HOME MAY BE SUMMER CAPITAL

LYME, Conn., Feb. 10.—Residents of this old town are aflutter over the prospects that it may be for a few weeks at any rate the country's summer capital. President-elect Wilson and his family spent the summer here three years ago, and, according to those in a position to know, Wilson is thinking very seriously of taking the old colonial home of Miss Florence Griswold, where he remained before, for his family for the coming summer.

It may be that it will be impossible for the President himself to stay any length of time, for the extra session of Congress and the promised trip to Panama will take up most of his summer, but Lyme is looking forward to welcoming Mrs. Wilson and her daughters.

When Mrs. Wilson, a landscape painter of no mean ability, came here she was charmed by the atmosphere of the place.

CORNELL STUDENTS TO CLIMB MT. McKINLEY

ITHACA, N. Y., Feb. 10.—Under the leadership of Andrew Kangstron, a graduate student at Cornell, a party from the department of physics of Cornell University will attempt to reach the summit of Mount McKinley next summer, according to announcement today. The expedition has been made possible, it is said, through the generosity of the Smithsonian Institution at Washington.

TEACHER MAY TAKE PUPIL TO THEATER

Superintendent Rules That Instructor Has Privilege After School Hours.

PASADENA, Feb. 10.—R. Clayton Diggins, physical instructor at the Pasadena high school, committed an "indiscretion" according to Principal J. O. Cross, in taking a young woman pupil to a theater, and Diggins was asked to resign.

Diggins "accepted" the invitation to quit but appealed to County Superintendent of Schools Mark Keppel The superintendent rendered an informal opinion today that the time of a teacher outside of school hours is his own and that school authorities should not interfere as long as the instructor conducts himself in a proper manner.

Educational and social circles are stirred over the affair.
